Downtown Economic Study Receives OK

In a 4 to 1 vote, the City Council Monday night approved an economic study of the downtown area near the San Bernardino freeway. The study was recommended by the Task Force, a group formed last fall. The dissenting voter was Councilman Max Hawkins.

Councilman Ronald Rossitter, who is chairman of the Task Force, told the council members that a Fashion Square was expected to locate in this area and while it was not exactly determined at this time, the thinking was it might be located along the San Bernardino freeway area. The cost of the survey will be between $8,000 and $12,500, said Rossitter.

OPPOSITION

The area under consideration is north of the freeway, east of Euclid avenue and south of 8th street. One man who lives in that area and who did not give his name, told Mayor George Gibson that he had a petition signed by some 70 people who opposed the location of any economic development in that area.

"There is a possibility of a shopping center of great magnitude along the freeway in our city and we need to have a study to know if this is the area to locate it or if there is another area within the city where it could be located," said Rossitter.

HAWKINS OPPOSES

Councilman Max Hawkins said, "I oppose any expenditure of funds for such study. I don't think it is practical. It would take years to acquire the property and I don't think it is morally right to ask these people to move."

Elwin Alder, city manager, said several companies had submitted bids for the survey, but Economic Research Associates was the one that large department stores used for their surveys. He told the council it would take 8 to 10 weeks to complete the survey and they would do it for $8,200. They could start the survey in two weeks and would explore all lands adjacent to the freeway in the city of Upland suitable for a fashion square.

The survey will base on a population projection for the next 10 years and the purchasing power of the public, he added.

The economic advantages are great, and if there is a fair chance we'd get a fashion square, we have to move now," said Rossitter. Councilman James Christensen agreed with Rossitter, but Councilman Zella Stone said, "We must tread lightly on that particular area where many old-timers live."

After a seesaw discussion, it was decided to leave all available lands within the city limits open in the survey and not concentrate on that one area.

Jaycees Seek Drums For Trash

The Ontario-Upland Jaycees are seeking 55-gallon metal drums as part of an international Relations Project, in conjunction with the California Jaycees and Mexico Jaycees.

Co-chairmen for the project are Mike Willis and Tom Kelleher. Anyone wishing to donate drums may contact Willis at 628-2571 or Kelleher at 986-6069 after 5 p.m. or write the Ontario-Upland Jaycees, P. O. Box 246, Upland.

Two AFS Students Arrive To Spend Year In Upland

Two American Field Service (AFS) students from Iran and Britain have arrived in Upland to attend school this fall and to live with local families.

They are Monir Akbarieh, 17, of Tehran, Iran, and Nicholas Wheatley, 16, of Stroud, Britain. A third AFS student, Nkurunziza Emmanuel, 18, of Fort Portal, Uganda, has also arrived and will be attending Alta Loma high school. He will be living with the Stephen Butters family of 6886 Hellman ave., Alta Loma.

Nkurun, the student from Uganda, was the first to arrive. He traveled by plane to New York on July 30 and from there took a plane to Kansas City. From Kansas City he took a bus to Los Angeles and arrived here Aug. 3.

Monir arrived second. She left Tehran Aug. 4 and stopped over in Istanbul. She flew to New York and from there to Los Angeles, where her American family picked her up Aug. 8. She commented that the LA Airport reminded her very much of the airport in Tehran.

Both Nkurun and Monir come from families of eight members. Monir explained that Nkurun has three brothers and two sisters, while she has three sisters and two brothers.

Miss Akbarieh's father is in the import business and her mother is a housewife. Her favorite sports are swimming and volleyball. She has studied English for 10 years and likes to read books in English.

She is staying with the Ray Rayburn family of 2445 N. Burt st., Upland.

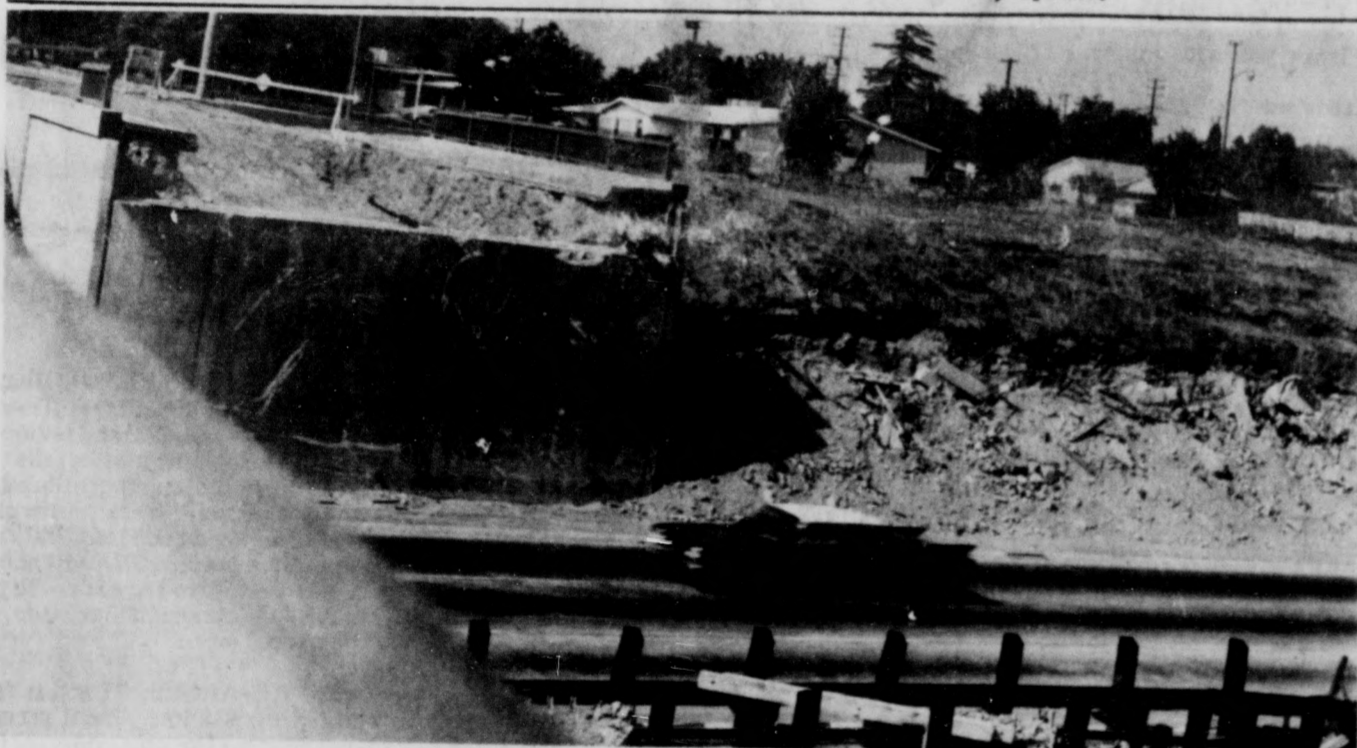

Nicholas Wheatley, the last student to arrive, was scheduled to fly into Los Angeles Airport Monday evening after a short delay. He will be living with the Herschel Glenn family of 1452 N. First ave., Upland.

Nicholas can speak French and German and enjoys hockey, cycling, and tennis. His father is employed at the Nuclear Laboratories, Berkeley, England, and his mother is a teacher.

A VIEW FROM THE BRIDGE -- Pedestrians can cross over from Ontario to Upland at Sultana avenue, but cars and trucks can't and won't be able to until southland construction management and labor resolve their differences and get back to work. Here a car speeds down the San Bernardino freeway at the junction where the Sultana overpass used to be.

Council By-Passes Survey On Airport

Although no action was taken in the possibility of a survey for a master plan for Cable Airport at Monday's council meeting, cost of this survey would be $11,091, said Councilman James Christensen, who heads a special Airport Committee, along with Councilman Zella Stone.

She was unavailable for the meeting of the airport committee held Monday morning. Christensen said the Cables would help defray the costs. Again Councilman Hawkins was the dissenter on making the survey.

"I just can't justify the money for such a study as we may go ahead and zone the airport the way we want anyway," Hawkins said.

Chamber Book To Tell The Story Of Upland

UPLAND - The chamber of commerce is preparing a publication which will tell the story of Upland.

The book will use photographs and print to describe Upland's history and social institutions. The book is in the hands of the Windsor Publications Co.

Chamber officials said it will be used to attract new business and employees to Upland.

The cost of advertising space in the book, purchased by business firms, will be used to finance the book.

The book will be distributed to families that have just moved in, those thinking it over, and new employees in the area.

Councilman Ronald Rossitter agreed that it was not a public airport and as such he couldn't see the survey either. Councilman Christensen said it was just a guideline study as to how many and what type of aircraft could be accommodated there, etc.

Hawkins replies that it was "a misuse of public funds over which we'd have no control."

Elwin Alder said the government was much interested in private airports who take the small planes off of public airports and would look favorably on giving grants to private airports who cooperated. The matter will come up again at the second meeting of the council in September.

New SCE Manager An Asset To Community

New resident, Randy Bond, is fast becoming an Uplander. He is manager of the Southern California Edison Co. office on Second avenue. Bond replaces Cal Shores, who retired earlier this year.

Born in Missouri, he came to California in 1942, after graduating from high school. He worked for one year at Douglas Aircraft and then spent three years in the Air Force.

After WW II, Bond attended University of Southern California where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration.

He started with the Edison Co. in 1950 as a statistician, and then served in their Building Maintenance and Customer Service Departments as a consultant. He moved into the position of service manager and was in the Whittier and La Mirada offices before coming to Upland.

Along with his wife Amber and four children, Lisa, 15, Lori, 14, Jane 12 and Susan 8, they are living in a home they bought in Upland and so far like living here. Residing with the family is a pet named Cat for obvious reasons. Also there are several pet rabbits whose population changes from day to day.

"I'm not much of a golfer, but since Cal was so good, I'll have to get with it and improve my game," says Bond. He'd really rather go fishing and it's the only thing he'll get up at 4 a.m. to do,

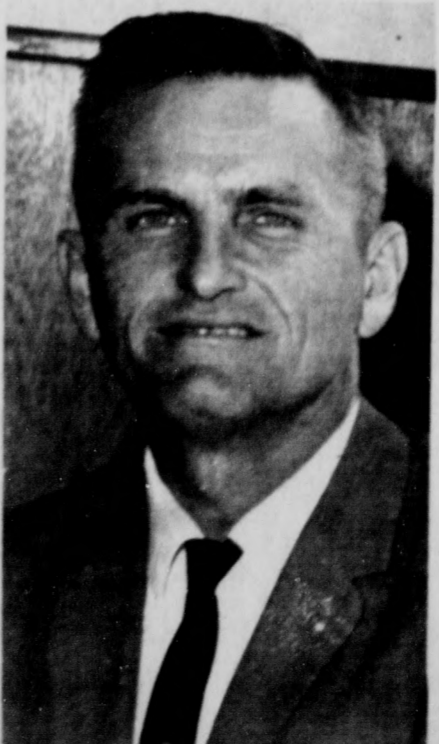

City To Receive Television Plug

The City of Upland is now receiving wide spread television publicity over Channel 4 during station breaks.

S. Lee Travers, director of administrative services for the city, was advised this past week that KNBC would start to air the identification slide showing Upland as one of the cities served by the station.

The city staff prepared material on Upland for the station.

Bond recently joined the Kiwanis club of Upland and is active in the Chamber of Commerce where he serves on the legislative and industrial committees, and the Fireball 12. He has been known for his hard work in the communities where he's lived before and his friendliness and willingness to work will be an asset to the community.

City Property Tax Rate Set At $1.80

The 1969-70 property tax for the city has been set at $1.80 for each one hundred dollars of assessed valuation of the real and certain personal property within the city, exclusive of bond purposes.

This represents a 1/2 cent reduction over last year. The overall budget for the city is $3.6 million with the following breakdown of the various funds.

A. For the general fund: $0.8777 as authorized by the California Government Code Section 43068.

B. For the Park and Recreation Fund: $0.3524 as authorized by the California Government Code Section 50400, and as authorized by the electors of the city at special elections.

C. For the Library Fund: $0.3000 as authorized by the California Education Code Section 27401.

D. For the Capital Outlay fund: $0.0569 as authorized by the CGC Section 43068.

E. For the Retirement Fund: $0.2130 as authorized by the CGC Section 20532.

The amount of money necessary to be raised by taxation upon the taxable property within the corporate limits of the city as the revenue to carry on the ordinary departments and administration of the municipal corporation, for the current fiscal year, is not to exceed the amount fixed by law, and to pay the bonded indebtedness of such municipal corporation, is determined and fixed as follows:

A. Amount of money to be raised for the General Fund is fixed at $465,712.

B. The amount to be raised for Park and Recreation fund is fixed at $186,979.

C. Amount to be raised for the Library fund is fixed at $159,180.

D. Amount to be raised for Capital Outlay is fixed at $30,199.

E. The amount necessary to be raised for Employees' Retirement is fixed at $113,010.

In other business, the council denied an appeal by the Westmaco Investment Co. for a zone change at Mountain avenue and 13th street;

--approved a conditional use permit for the R.B.Z., Inc. to establish a mobile home park in an A-2 Zone (agricultural zone).

--approved the appointments of Gary Hart and Jerry Wulf as police investigators, effective September 1.

Operation Cheer Picnic

DeAnza park will be the setting for Operation Cheer's fundraising picnic Aug. 24, according to Mrs. Beverly Emmons, packaging chairman.

Jaggar Bowl in DeAnza park will provide the space and seating for the local professional talent to be brought for entertainment following the noon luncheon. De Anza park is located in Ontario on Euclid avenue, south of Mission blvd.

Shane Dominic, headliner at the Club 66 in Cucamonga, is lining up the talent.

On the day of the picnic, the Inland Rallye Association of Pomona Valley will organize a Cheer-O-Van from Pomona Valley Center, Pomona, to the DeAnza park to encourage West End residents to turn out.

Funds are needed by Operation Cheer to provide postage for the many packages the non-profit organization sends each month to West End servicemen stationed overseas.

In addition to food and entertainment, Montclair Plaza stores have donated merchandise for an auction. Items include dresses, books, accessories, etc.

Further information about the picnic, or about Operation Cheer, may be obtained by calling Mrs. Emmons at 982-7001.

The Two Sides

When the results of last November's park bond election brought a majority but not the two-thirds majority required by law, the council decided to hold another election six months later, hoping to get the bond passed.

Meanwhile, a year or two earlier Councilman Christensen, then mayor, had proposed that the question of electing the mayor by popular vote be put to the people. He was turned down by a 4-1 decision.

Since that time the issue was occasionally brought up, according to Mayor George Gibson, but did not pass.

Then about the start of the current year Councilman Hawkins proposed the question—but with different results. It passed 4-1 with Mayor Gibson casting the dissenting vote.

The issue was scheduled to be added to the ballot May 13 with the park bond.

Promotion of the park bond had just begun when the January and February floods came, Mayor Gibson explained, diverting the city manager's as well as the general public's attention.

"No matter what some people may think, there is no mystery or intrigue about the election being cancelled—at least I don't know of any," said Mayor Gibson.

While the issue of whether the mayor should be elected at large is somewhat older than the park bond issue, the two found themselves inseparably bound because of coincident timing.

Giving reasons why it might be desirable to elect a mayor at large, Councilman Christensen mentioned the absolute power of the city manager and the council's inability to act except when sitting in session.

"There is a different connotation to the mayor's office—more prestige. Three members on the council can arbitrarily change mayor, playing musical chairs with the mayor's seat.

"This could be prevented if the mayor were elected directly by the people," he said.

"In a city the size of ours—32,500—the person elected to the mayorship should be the popular voice of the people. The way it is now, the mayor need only be a politician enough to get two other votes."

He said electing the mayor would prevent bickering, petty deal-making, and would enable the mayor to meet more often with the city manager to keep more informed about city problems.

Mayor Gibson, on the other hand, saw no reason to change the way of choosing Upland's mayor.

There is little demand for it by the people. The present form has worked for many years and has provided good government," he said.

Under the present set-up the council reorganizes itself every two years. At that time the body may choose a new mayor or retain the old one. All positions are part time.

"If you elect the mayor, you will get a man in for four years—good or bad," Mayor Gibson commented.

He went on to say that there is a shortage of good candidates for elective governmental positions in the city.

"People who would profit the city do not turn out," he said.

The mayor's position is that of presiding officer to the council. All council members have the same powers and must all work together, he explained.

"I see a tendency when you have an elected mayor for him to start running the city, creating conflict with the city manager. The city manager has been trained and educated for his job, while the mayor and the council have not—they are just ordinary citizens," said the mayor.

He felt the council is in the best position to choose a mayor because the members are aware of each other's qualifications for the job.

That Was No Lady, It's My Son

UPDATED VERSION

"Who was that lady I saw you with last night?"

"That was no lady, that was my son."

WE HEARD SOMEWHERE

That most marriages are happy, it's the living together afterwards that causes the trouble.

That a camel looks like a horse designed by a committee.

That an optimist is a 90-year old bridegroom who buys a home near a school.

That an old-timer is one who remembers when both the telephone and the automobile had to be cranked.

WHERE IS IT?

Something I'd like to ask the State Department: With all those goodwill trips, how come we don't have any?

From Our Readers

Dear Sir:

The Association joins me in thanking you for your cooperation in covering the news and activities of the Orchestra and the Association. We had a most successful concert season and we are looking forward to some very fine concerts next year. We appreciate your efforts in our behalf.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Editor:

I would like to thank you both for the interest you took in producing such a nice article and picture on my recent award in Civil Air Patrol. I have received many encouraging comments and it has aroused much local interest in the Civil Air Patrol Program. I appreciate the time and effort involved.

Sincerely,

Gentlemen:

You are to be complimented on the Citizen of the Month article by Jenny Kirkpatrick on June 19 about Althea Correll, entitled "One Career Follows Another".

It is interesting to read how she is involved in community activities.

This is so typical of our Senior Californians. Both the Senior and the community benefits when retirement life is really an active life for the older person.

By publishing such articles, you are encouraging others to stay active.

BELATED BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Oops! August Birthday greetings for the famous in the city slipped by, but best wishes anyway to Councilman James Christensen, Aug. 4; Assistant City Administrator, Lee Traver's Aug. 5, Robert Thrall, city treasurer, Aug. 6; Don Maroney, City Attorney, Aug. 14, and a happy early birthday to Fire Chief Leon Lamphear, Aug. 31.

GUESS WHO MOVED?

Snug in their new quarters at the old library building are the city administrative, planning and purchasing depts. The remodeling job is very unique and is the brain child of Elwin Alder, city manager. He drew up the plans (and a good job he did, making use of the old facilities.)

There is some snazzy wallpaper and a few antiques such as the old council chamber table and the fence out of the old court building. The city hall will house the police department, city clerk's office and council chambers. The old office of the council chambers will be used for the council members. It will be the first time the city fathers will have a place they can call their own.

GOT ANY RUMMAGE?

Get any old rummage you may have out and contact Bill Landacena, 982-2326. He will pick it up or get one of the Upland Foothill Kiwanis members to do so, and it will go for a good cause, the club's annual rummage sale to be held Sept. 5 and 6. Here's a chance to clean out the garage and help a cause.

LAGUNA BEACH FESTIVAL

If you haven't seen the Laguna Beach Pageant of the Masters, take time out and go see it. It is something worth seeing. The cast of local people take the 2,572 spectators in Irvine Bowl to a breathtaking view of living pictures, sculpturing and statues.

This year's offering is particularly good. It opens with a bas relief of the Venice Bell, by Antonio Rizzo. The bas relief is outlined atop the Irvine Bowl stage against the dark sky. One can not believe the portrait is composed of real people.

The rest of the Pageant is spellbinding as the 26 artist's works unfold. One of the highlights, to me, was the Wine Harvest by Francisco De Goya. The little two year old boy, portraying one of the sons, couldn't hold still and it was charming to see this quiet picture with a bobbing black haired little boy. Some of the art work on the grounds is also, worth seeing and many good purchases of originals can be made. If you miss the pageant this year make plans to go next year as the tickets are hard to come by and need to be ordered early. Hats off to Laguna Beach for a fine art festival.

TOWANDA, PA., REVIEW: "Keep America Beautiful, Inc., has joined the exercise advocates. The national antilitter organization says it has devised a method for keeping in trim and eliminating the unsightly clutter Americans deposit along their highways and in the woods. 'Litter walking,' it calls the plan, which is nothing more than taking a good long walk and bending down to pick up every piece of litter encountered. Aching muscles will testify to the exercise part of it, and a small stretch of clean countryside will make the body feel better too."

LA PORTE, IND., HERALD-ARGUS: "Take it from a veteran reporter who believes a long, hard struggle is ahead in the student revolt. He contends the two sides have not listened to each other, the two sides being the students and the American public. If they have learned nothing and settled nothing, there is not much chance of an immediate realistic understanding. That, indeed, is a pessimistic outlook on a social revolution that is not apt to fade quietly away."

LOCKNEY, TEXAS, BEACON: "The one thing which the Reds respect is force. The Free World can maintain its position only by retaining a weaponry stockpile superior, or at least equal, to that of the Russians. While the enemy continues to advance at a rapid pace, can Uncle Sam afford to do less?"

ST. JOHN, KANS., NEWS: "Members of the Congress have been in turmoil... over the matter of extending the surtax. Closing tax loopholes, seeking out new sources of taxes, and trying to decide which taxes can be increased with the least ensuing squealing seems to occupy most of the time of many members of the federal governing body. Odd, isn't it, that nobody in Washington seems to be concerned with 'making do' with the available tax revenues, with setting an absolute limit of taxes, on reducing taxes, and, for goodness sake, trying to ease the awful burden which the unhappy taxpayer bears today?"

Earns Flying Cross Award Upland Serviceman Flies in Vietnam

By Judy Jordahl

"We have moved 10 or 11 times in seven years. But we are always ready to move when Dan is transferred," said Nancy Nicholson.

The Nicholsons have moved again from their home on O'Neill in Upland to Eglin Air Force Base, Florida, where the head of the house, Captain Daniel A. Nicholson, will be stationed.

They have gone from base to base, state to state, since February, 1962, when Nicholson applied and was accepted into Air Force office training school.

Six and a half years later found the captain bound for a year of active duty in Vietnam as a rescue and recovery helicopter pilot. He returned to Upland July 18, exactly a year from his departure.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Nicholson, 289 W. Ninth st., Capt. Nicholson was born in Long Beach in 1939 but came to Upland four years later and was graduated from Upland high school in 1956.

START IN AVIATION

Aviation had already held some fascination for him before he enrolled -- at Chaffey college, then in Ontario, he was a member of the aero club and later obtained a private pilot's license.

After his graduation from Chaffey in 1959, aviation took a back seat until he finished at San Diego State in January, 1962, with a degree in life science.

Because he had been interested in flying, the Air Force seemed a natural choice for enlistment, but also "it offers a better family life," added Mrs. Nicholson.

TRAIN AND TRAVEL

From then the family began its travels in earnest as the head of the house engaged in further aviation training.

In May, 1962, Nicholson went to navigation school at Lackland AFB, Tex., as a second lieutenant. In June, he went to James Connely AFB, Tex., for further navigation training, where he received his navigator wings.

He was transferred to Mather AFB in Sacramento in March, 1963, to learn the components of the B-52 navigation system. In November, he attended three weeks of survival school at Stead AFB near Reno, Nev.

From there the Nicholsons went to Castle AFB in Merced where the captain received B-52 combat crew training. He explained that the B-52 is an eight-engine jet plane used widely by the military.

TWO CHILDREN

At Larson AFB at Moses Lake, Wash., where Nicholson was stationed as a B-52 navigator from May, 1964, to May, 1966, both children were born -- Christy now 4-1/2 and David, now 3. There he applied for pilot training.

Capt. Nicholson has a hobby he is saving for a rainy day -- building models he has collected of each type of airplane he has flown.

At Laredo AFB, Tex., he flew 120 hours in a T-37, a twin jet trainer, and 35 hours in a T-41, a small Cessna plane about the size of a sports car.

At Sheppard AFB, Tex., he began helicopter training in December, 1966, flying 70 hours in flight after a three-minute "scramble" with a fire suppression kit on board, including a 150-foot hose and a 1,000-pound extinguisher.

The helicopter follows the distressed plane down, fully prepared to recover crew members as quickly as possible in case of fire.

15 MILE LIMIT

Nicholson said that the base will not send a helicopter further than 15 miles away to intercept a plane because of the swift speed at which hot fire burns.

In the case of a burning plane, the helicopter lands downwind with two fire fighters and a medical technician. A rotorblast from the fire suppression kit can penetrate a 20-foot fire and give fire fighters 50 seconds to reach the crew members and bring them out.

Nicholson left Moody AFB in June, 1968, and after establishing his family in Upland and stopping en route for a Southeast Asia jungle survival course at Clark AFB in the Philippines, he arrives at Tuy Hoa July 31.

BASE FLIGHTS

Located on the east coast of south central Vietnam, the base sent out flights four, then later three, days a week to bring doctors to native villages for 2-1/2 hour visits.

"Our sending doctors and dentists to the people promotes the causes of the Vietnamese army and government," Nicholson said. He then flew 35 hours in an HH-43B Huskie, and received his pilot's wings in May, 1967.

RESCUE PILOT

Thus began another episode in Nicholson's career, leading up to his service duty in Vietnam.

As a pilot, he and the family were next transferred to Moody AFB, Ga., a pilot training base for the Cessna T-37, Nicholson explained.

At the base, he was one of four pilots in Detachment 12 of the Eastern Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Center, which was in cooperation with the Civil Air Patrol and the Federal Aviation Agency in recovering lost planes and people.

The two Huskie helicopters at the base were used in a 75-mile radius of the base for pick-up of stranded persons located by other planes, and for in-flight emergency interceptions.

CASES

Two cases involved recovery of six bodies in a Navy plane crash in Okefenokee Swamp, Ga., and the body of a student who crashed in a T-37. The helicopters also picked up stranded hunters.

In cases of missing planes, personnel would check airports and flight towers to find the area where the plane was last seen. Recent weather reports would also be checked to see if a plane could have been diverted off-course or caught by bad weather.

For emergency interceptions of a plane landing at the base, rescue personnel could be in said.

He said the natives treated had many cataracts, bad teeth, and diet-related diseases. There was also a high rate of TB. Doctors and dentists could never treat everyone they would like on a single visit.

The base had three Huskie helicopters (only two during the last six months of Nicholson's term) painted camouflage and without armor plating or major armament.

NOT DEFENSELESS

"Each man carries an M-16 rifle and a .38 special revolver only for his own personal survival," Nicholson explained. So the men are not sent into a combat area totally defenseless.

In addition to transporting doctors and dentists to inland villages, the helicopter crews also rescued other air personnel from downed aircraft in remote jungle combat areas.

Capt. Nicholson explained that in heavy jungles, trees often grow to a height of 200 feet and have two or three layers of canopy foliage. It may therefore be difficult to see a crashed plane from the air.

FLYING CROSS AWARD

One incident earned the captain the distinguished flying cross award in January, 1969, as he observed his eighth wedding anniversary.

About six men were trapped in a canyon by the Viet Cong. One man had been hit three times and couldn't travel. An armed helicopter, a Huey VH-1 gunship, preceded the rescue helicopter, piloted by Nicholson, into the area.

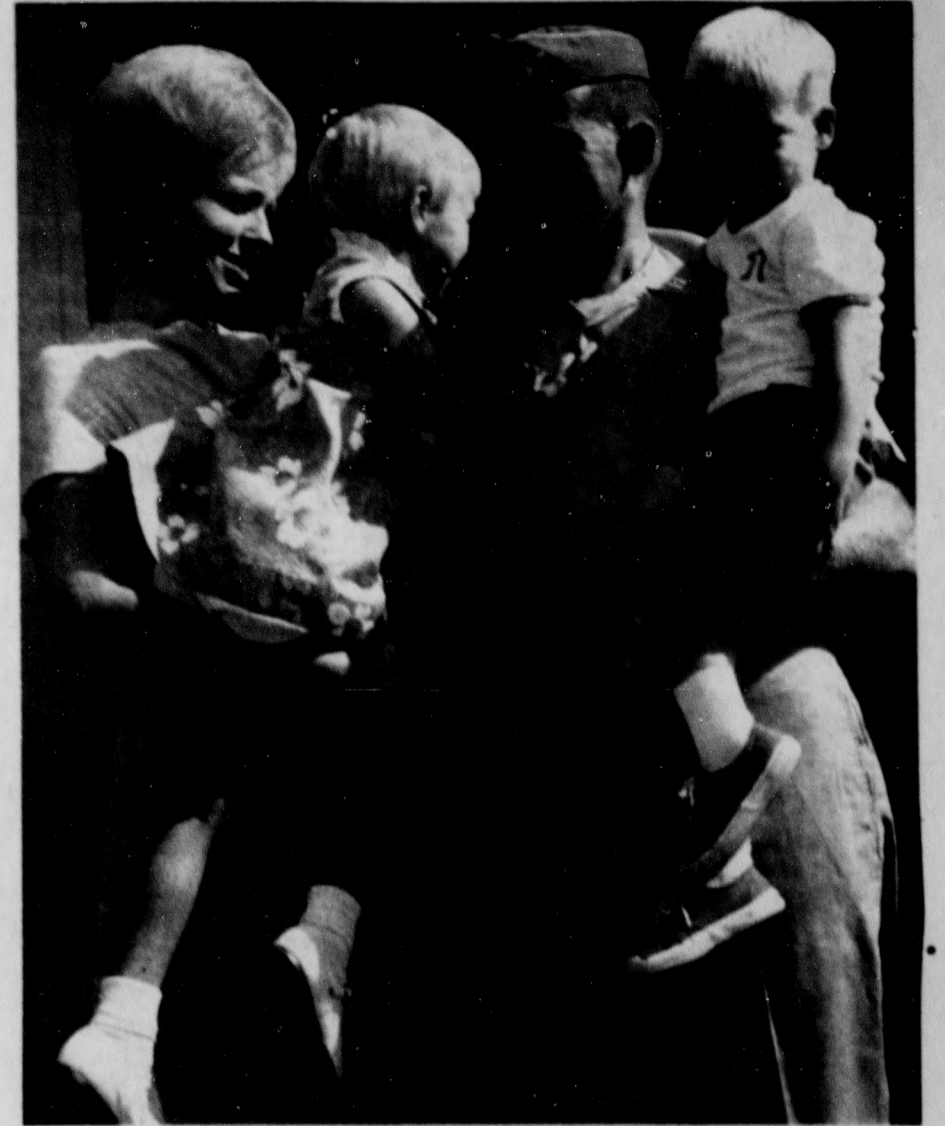

Shooting mini-guns and rockets under the rescue helicopter "to sanitize the area to stop the VC," the gunship waited until the rescue had been made.

As Nicholson was hovering, VC bullets hit the helicopter, just missing his head. He later had to crash-land the plane because shots in the engine had allowed the oil to escape.

The mission was successful though; the rescue was completed and no one was wounded.

Of the Vietnam experience, Capt. Nicholson says, "I hope I won't have to go back. I don't know of anyone who's been over a second time yet unless he specifically volunteered for it."

His current plans are to complete his advanced jet training, which was cut short because of the demand for helicopter pilots. He will fly the supersonic jet T-38 Talon.

DADDY COMES HOME -- Nancy Nicholson, left, holds her 4-1/2-year-old daughter Christy as the little girl reaches for her daddy, Air Force Captain Dan Nicholson, Nicholson, who is holding 3-year-old David, returned to the United States July 18 after a year of active duty as a rescue helicopter pilot in Vietnam. From Upland, the family is moving to Florida, where Nicholson will be stationed at Eglin Air Force Base.

HAWAIIAN DAZE -- Gail Giarantano, in conjunction with Upland's Island Days, last week, distributes leis to shoppers to add to the holiday atmosphere.

ORGANIST -- Candace Collins of Cucamonga has appeared in recital at Music Village in Placentia for the past three weeks. She will enter the third grade in the fall.

Candace Collins Appears In Piano Recital

Candace Collins, seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Collins, 8196 Malven Ave., Cucamonga, appeared July 25, Aug. 1 and Aug. 8 at an open house at Music Village in Placentia.

She has been a guest soloist on the organ and piano at the Free Methodist Church of Pomona and the Nazarene Church of Cucamonga. She has been studying music a year and a half under Renee Raymonde.

We give scholarships to bright students.
If their grades aren't too high.

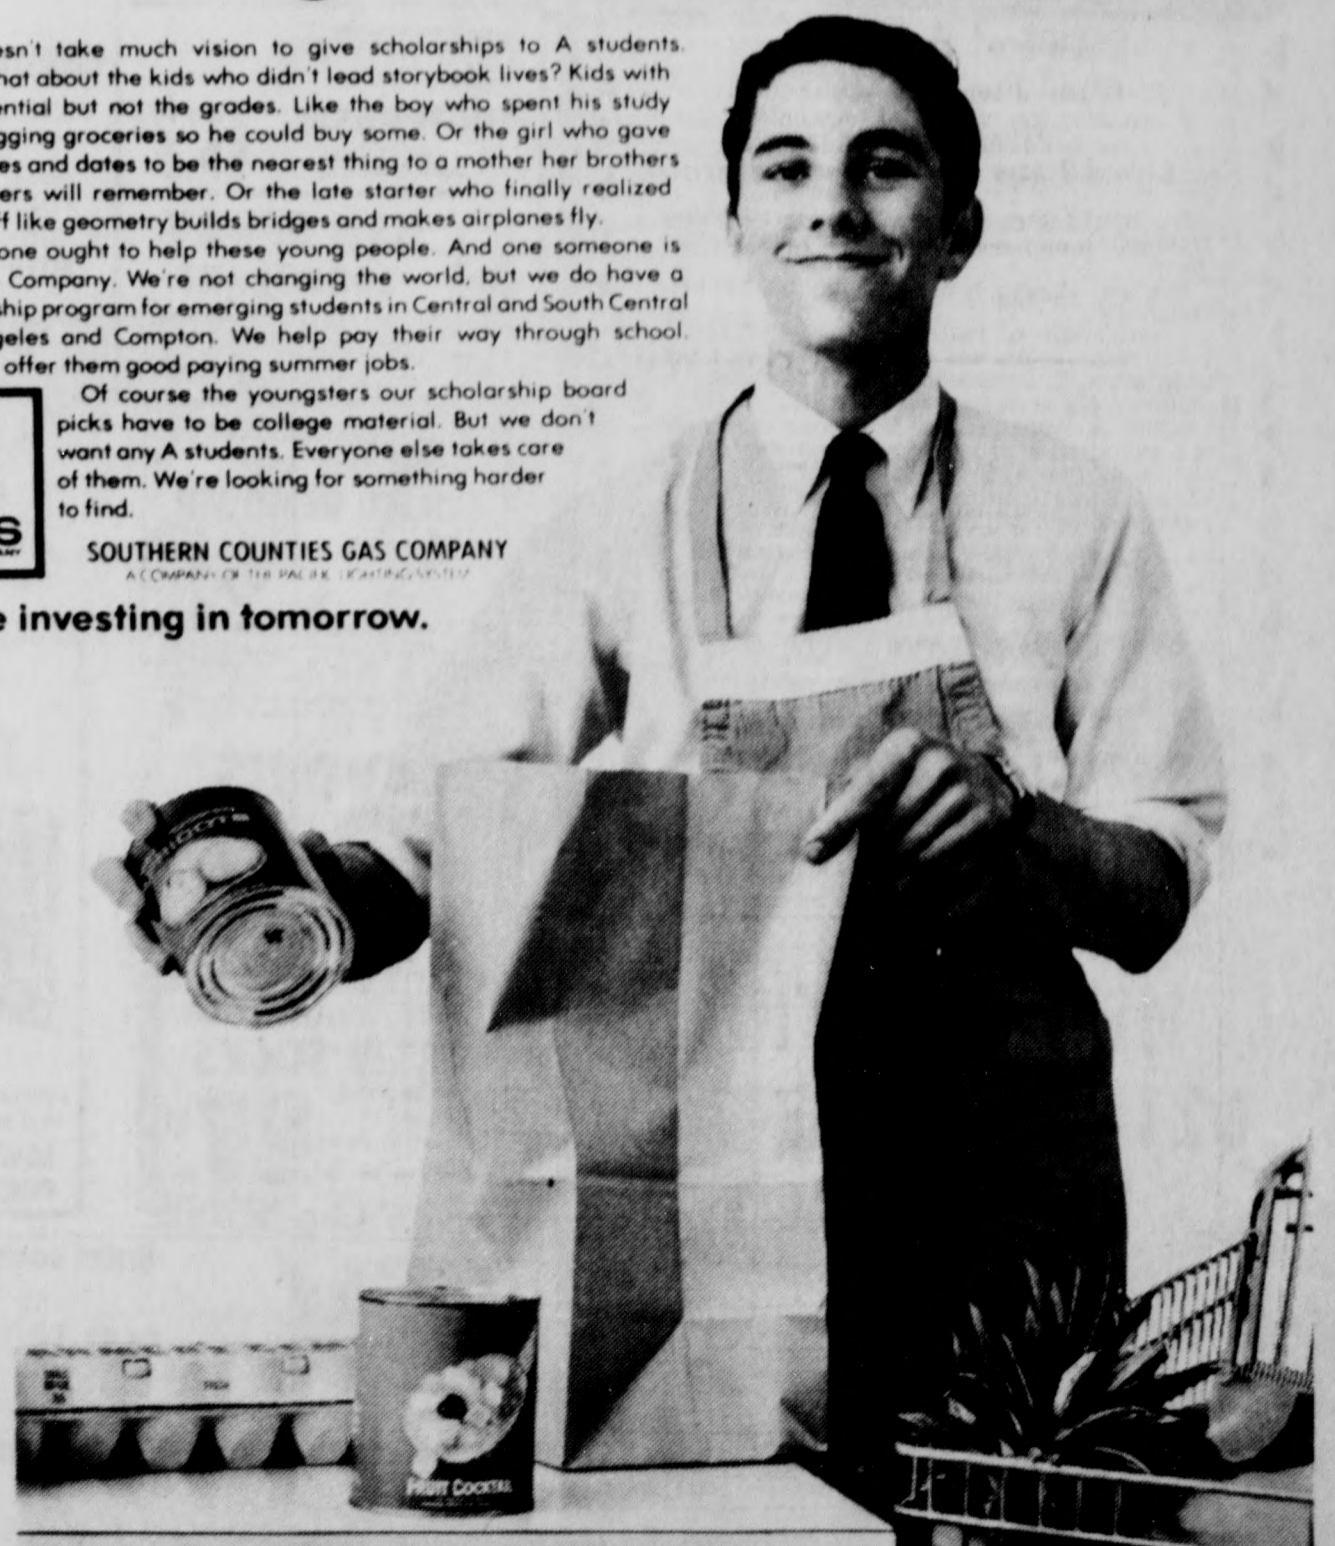

It doesn't take much vision to give scholarships to A students. But what about the kids who didn't lead storybook lives? Kids with the potential but not the grades. Like the boy who spent his study time bagging groceries so he could buy some. Or the girl who gave up studies and dates to be the nearest thing to a mother her brothers and sisters will remember. Or the late starter who finally realized that stuff like geometry builds bridges and makes airplanes fly.

Someone ought to help these young people. And one someone is the Gas Company. We're not changing the world, but we do have a scholarship program for emerging students in Central and South Central Los Angeles and Compton. We help pay their way through school. And we offer them good paying summer jobs.

Of course the youngsters our scholarship board picks have to be college material. But we don't want any A students. Everyone else takes care of them. We're looking for something harder to find.

2051 Borrow Books In 1969

2051 more books, magazines and other library materials were borrowed from the Cucamonga-Alta Loma Library this year than last.

A total of 60,797 were borrowed in spite of the flood damage which made it difficult for many to reach the library on Base Line road. This figure was given by Mrs. Helen Kilmurray, in her annual report for the fiscal year July 1968 to June 1969.

Every day newcomers in the area come in for a library card and an introduction to this library of over 21,000 books plus many magazines. They are also given information on the Inland Library System which makes it possible for a borrower from one library to use his card at most of the other libraries in San Bernardino and Riverside Counties, giving him access to over a million and a half books.

In looking back over the activities for the year, one of the most outstanding was a program prepared by Mrs. Walter Wood's class from Alta Loma School. The children dressed as book characters, read stories and presented a play about Tom Sawyer.

The Friends of the Library, organized last year, again sponsored an open house at the library in April during National Library Week.

Each fourth, fifth and sixth grade class in the Central and Alta Loma School District was invited to visit the library during the year to learn more about the library.

After school and in the evenings the library is a busy place with students from elementary through college age writing papers and doing research on subjects that range from the draft law, to hippies, biographies of current authors, the skeletons of various animals, and the history of the local area. Over 5000 questions were answered during the year.

Mrs. Kilmurray and her assistants, Mrs. Donna Rhodes, Mrs. Shirley O'Brien and Mrs. Ruth LaBerteaux, are always friendly and ready to help their borrowers find the books they want to read.

The library is open from 12 noon - 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday; 12 noon-6:30 p.m. on Fridays, and from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. on Saturday.

Houseboating, Homicide Were Topics For Club

Sweeten Hall was the setting of the Cucamonga Service Club's regular dinner, Thursday night Aug. 14.

Chuck Swan, former club president, entertained the Club with a detailed report of his houseboat vacation on the Sacramento river. He and Walt Kulczycki took with them their families.

According to Swan a houseboat vacation is the only way to go, both for the pleasure of seeing sights never seen by car as well the economy of such an unusual experience. Their week on the river was so enjoyable that both families hope to repeat their experience next year.

Swan and the Club both were honored with a citation from the Boys' Club of America. Swan received his award for his help in forming the Cucamonga Boys Club and the Club for its donation of $175.

Sergeant Dewey Rinstead of the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department was guest speaker. Sergeant Rinstead spoke on the increase of crime in both regional and national areas. He also showed colored and sound motion pictures of the reenactment of a homicide committed in the county a short time ago. Sergeant Rinstead's presentation was most informative.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart R. Alter

Hobart R. Alters Anniversary Feted

Former Assemblyman and Mrs. Hobart R. Alter were honored Aug. 10 with an open house celebration on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. Alter, who came to Ontario when he was 7 years old, is the son of Ezra R. Alter, an early mayor of Ontario. Mr. Alter served as an assemblyman from the 72nd District from 1932 to 1934. From 1936 to 1945 he was president of the Ontario school board. In 1936 he served as lieutenant-governor of the Kiwanis.

A competent musician, Mr. Alter has played in the local music groups and now plays first violin for the Desert Symphony Orchestra. He served as concert master for four and one half years under Thomas Mancini.

Mrs. Alter, the former Katherine Laidlaw, was born in Ontario. She is the daughter of George G. Laidlaw, a pioneer citrus rancher in Ontario and Upland.

The couple, who divide their time between homes in Palm Springs, Laguna Beach and Orcas Island, flew in from a fishing trip in the Puget Sound for the event hosted by their children and grandchildren.

The celebration was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Spencer, their daughter and son-in-law, 618 Lamplighter Lane, Upland. Also hosting the event were Mrs. Carolyn A. Settember, Ontario, another daughter and Hobart L. Alter of Dana Point, their son.

Grandchildren attending and lending a hand were Mr. and Mrs. Gary Spencer, Steve and Mark Spencer of Upland; Tony Settember of Ontario and Paula, Hobie, and Jeffrey Alter of Dana Point.

The home was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and gladiolus for the event. Pictures of the wedding party, the honeymoon and the bride's book were on display.

Members of the wedding party attending were Harry M. Alter of Laguna Hills, brother, who was best man; Mrs. Robert D. Harwood of San Diego who was maid of honor and Mrs. Mitchell Washburn of Garden Grove, a cousin, who was a bridesmaid.

WCTU Discuss Soft Drinks

A panel discussion of Departmental work was led by Mrs. Mary Burns, vice president of the Upland Woman's Christian Temperance Union, when that group met Friday in the home of Mrs. Iva Marr.

Mrs. Marr, president, presided. Participating in the panel were Mrs. Marr, director of Christian outreach education and projection methods; Mrs. Emma Landstrom, home protection; Olga Smith, citizenship and legislation; Mrs. Florence Moore, social service and Fannie E. Hoffman, public relations.

OES Exchange Meeting Held

Upland Chapter Order of Eastern Star held an exchange meeting night with Corona chapter recently.

Mrs. John Morgan, worthy matron, and John Morgan, worthy patron, and the regular officers of Corona Chapter, Corona, filled the stations in Upland chapter. Mrs. Merwin Ripley, worthy matron, and Harvey Wilkin, worthy patron, presided during the business session.

Mrs. Glen Mikesell, grand chaplain of the Grand chapter, State of California, was escorted to the East and introduced. Also escorted were the Mmes. Neal Henderson, Maude Grahame, Elizabeth Carver, William Morrow, Suzanna Bradley, Merle Kough, Arthur Philbrick, Jay Thrasher, and Miss Suzanne Bradley, all past matrons of Upland chapter.

Other guests introduced were Mrs. Rhea Mellon, Mrs. Ward Figgins, from Euclid chapter, Ontario; Jennie Hall, Pomona; Connie Zimmerman, North Hollywood; Mrs. James Hancock and Evangeline Dobb.

Mrs. Anthony Barone announced a rummage sale for Sept. 18-20 to be held at 214 N. Euclid, Ontario. For additional information, contact Mrs. Barone or Mrs. Coral Hunter, co-chairmen.

Refreshments were served in the dining room following the meeting by Mrs. Ira Francis, Mrs. Harvey Wilkin, Mrs. John Wilkin, Mrs. Lillian Sutton, Mrs. Theodore Carow and Mrs. Hunter.

DramaGroup Fetes Head

The Drama Section of the Upland Woman's club is being entertained today by Mrs. C. E. Reimers in her home, 7838 Buena Vista, on Red Hill, Cucamonga.

The group is honoring the section president, Mrs. A. Trilivsky. Mrs. Lewis Stokes, club president, is a special guest.

Attending the event are the Mmes. Martha Tichler, F.H. Jacobs, Ella Wright, Ralph Almquist, Ann Stohle, Maude Grahame, Bertis Gauney, Betty Truke, John Gately, Floyd Chambers and Miss Mildred Briggs.

Assisting with the serving are Thomas Kincaid, Adrian Seeley, John E. Coldsnow and C. E. Reimers.

C-AL Flames Sew Quilts

C-AL Flames, the Cucamonga-Alta Loma Fire Department's Women's Auxiliary, held a regular business meeting at the Cucamonga Fire Hall July 21.

Six members attended this once-a-month meeting and adjourned early to work on quilts to donate to Santa Claus Inc.

Recent projects by C-AL Flames include the Fireman's Ball and the sending of an underprivileged boy recommended from the area by the YMCA to summer camp.

Mountettes Win Again

Can you imagine the parade, the judging and the waiting until the judge pronounces your mounted group the winner over all mounted groups in a parade?

The Ontario Mountettes just went through another such experience when they rode in the Aug. 10 Old Miners' Day parade at Big Bear.

Carrying the colors to claim first place trophy were Doris Quaintance, D. Hardy and H. Fresmer.

Monday, Aug. 11, the Mountettes met at the Ontario Police Station to get ready for fall and winter parades, to discuss improvement of equipment, badges, and materials (the women mainly make their own uniforms).

Bobbie Sissions, president, conducted the meeting. Sharon Chiatovich of Chino is handling the newly won trophy.

Childbirth Classes Scheduled

The newly formed Upland-Alta Loma chapter of Preparing Expectant Parents, a non-profit, lay organization offering instruction in the Lamaze method of childbirth, starts its new series of classes, Thursday, Sept. 4, at 9:30 a.m.

The weekly sessions, held in the homes of instructors Mrs. Barbara Gittens and Mrs. Sandy Fulkerson, train women in techniques of breathing and neuromuscular release to help a couple enjoy the birth of their baby.

Training is for those expecting within 2 1/2 months of a beginning series. A library on childbirth, breastfeeding, and general parenthood is available.

Further information and/or a free brochure will be provided by Mrs. Barbara Gittens, 1444 E. 13th, Upland, 982-6198 or Mrs. Sandy Fulkerson, 8765 Avalon, Alta Loma, 987-4590.

Art Coffee Set Today

The Chaffey Community Art Association is meeting for an "art coffee" today at the home of Mrs. Harvey Doody, 322 W. 22nd ave., Upland.

The coffee is being held from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Dennis Van Schuyver, art coordinator for the Ontario School District, is scheduled to present a weaving demonstration.

Upland Teachers

UPLAND -- The Upland elementary school district will have an in-service training meeting for all teachers in the District September 2-5.

With the theme, "Humanizing Education," the teachers will attend grade level and department meetings, a district-wide meeting and teachers' and principals' association meetings.

Weaving Set 1st Art Coffee Upland Women Volunteer Assistance At Blood Bank

Dates have been set for three coffees and one evening party in August for members and guests of the Chaffey Community Art Association.

On Thursday, Aug. 21, Mrs. Harvey Glenn Doody will open her home on 22nd street in Upland for coffee at 10 a.m., followed by a weaving demonstration by Dennis Van Schuyver. Van Schuyver is arts coordinator for the Ontario elementary schools. Hostesses assisting Mrs. Doody will be Mrs. G.A. Carlisle and Mrs. L.J. Keeney.

Art Association neighbors and friends of Mrs. Orel Davidson will gather at her home at 130 East 6th st., Ontario on Monday morning Aug. 25 at 10 a.m. She will be assisted by Mrs. D. Casson Mast, Mrs. E.L. Robinson, Mrs. Holden Webber and Mrs. Philip White. The program will be a demonstration in oil painting by Mrs. James Miller of Upland.

Mrs. Charles Ayres, 709 First ave., Upland, will entertain her guests on Wednesday, Aug. 27 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. On display will be an exhibit of her paintings and examples of the many crafts in which she is interested. Hostesses assisting her are Mrs. W.E. Amberson, Mrs. Ruth Hanson and Mrs. West Hubbel.

The evening of Thursday, Aug. 28, has been marked for an outdoor supper at the home of Mr. Paul Gannon, 231 Armsley Square, Ontario. Guests will be family members of the Art Association, and the occasion will offer an opportunity for members and guests to become better acquainted.

Members of the Upland Woman's Club volunteer their services the fourth Thursday of each month at the Ontario YMCA for the Blood Bank of San Bernardino and Riverside Counties.

The ladies type the donors cards with pertinent information concerning the donors health, for whom the blood is being donated, etc. With card in hand, the donors go on to the local doctor (who has also donated his time that day) for a blood pressure check and blood typing, and then on to the main reason for them being there, the taking of the blood. When this process is over the donor then goes to the canteen area where more volunteers serve them orange juice and cookies.

Donors give blood for many reasons; obstetric insurance for expectant mothers, reserve fund for organizations, personal accounts for individuals and also to donate thru the clearing house for patients out of this area.

The Blood Bank is held at the YMCA in Ontario on the second and fourth Thursday of each month. There is always a need for all types of blood as it can only be kept for 21 days.

Women who have helped this summer were the Mmes. Gordon Anderson, Robert Barry, Ralph Bentley, Mike Flardi, Earl Largent, C.E. Lindenberg, Fredric Maurer, Robert Peres, Lewis C. Stokes, L.B. Van Ornam and Miss Florence Armstrong and Miss Debbie Stokes.

Miss Florence Wood Wed To Mr. Freeland

The First Presbyterian Church of Upland was the setting for the evening ceremony, July 19, which united in marriage Miss Florence Arline Wood and Mr. Gary Elmo Freeland.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Walter Wood and the late Dr. Walter W. Wood of 634 N. 1st ave., Upland. Mr. Freeland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Zane Freeland of Corona.

Given in marriage by her brother Dr. Paul H. Wood, the bride wore a white linen gown adorned with Venice lace on the short, set-in sleeves and the fitted empire bodice. A Bateau neckline deepened to a V in back where a wattleau panel edged with lace cascaded to the floor. A floor length cage mantilla of illusion edged with the Venice lace formed her bridal veil. Her jewelry included a pearl necklace with emerald clasp given her by the bridegroom. She carried a cascade bouquet of butterfly orchids, pin rosebuds, stephanotis, baby breath and fern.

Miss Dorothy Wood stood as her sister's maid of honor in a pink sheath of empire style and a shoulder length three-tier veil in pink. She carried a cascade of chartreuse spider mums.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. W.J. Farris, another sister, from Llano, Calif. and Mrs. Tom Zorn of Los Angeles and Mrs. Paul H. Wood of San Gabriel. They were gowned in similar sheaths of misty green with matching veils and carried pink spider mum cascades. Jo Ann Wood, a niece of the bride, was the flower girl in green with pink accessories.

Ronald Freeland, of Corona, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man and ushers were Walter Wood of Upland, brother of the bride, David Wood of Pomona, twin brother of the bride and Anthony Abraham of Long Beach. Ronald Wood of Upland, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. He carried the rings in a silver basket which came from Brazil. Mrs. Ellnor Wilding was organist and Burton Jackson was soloist.

The Hart Fellowship Hall of the church was the setting for the reception. The couple spent their honeymoon along the California coastline including Hearst's Castle, San Francisco, the Redwoods and Lake Tahoe for two weeks. They have established their home in Signal Hill.

The former Miss Wood is a 1963 graduate of Upland High School. She received a diploma from Chaffey College in 1965 and is currently a senior at Long Beach State College majoring in physical therapy.

Mr. Freeland is a 1962 graduate of Corona high school. He earned his B.S. degree at Cal State Long Beach in 1967 and is currently doing graduate study in his major, Civil Engineering.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary E. Freeland

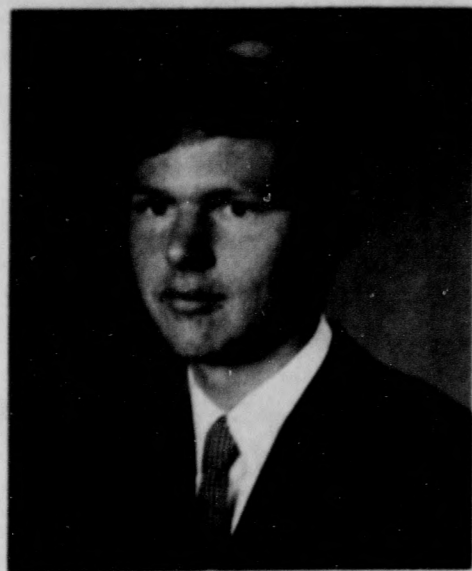

German Youth To Spend School Year At Upland

Wilfried Bratumyl, a representative of the Youth For Understanding Program, will be attending Upland High School this school year.

He will be staying at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Kleinman. Bratumyl is a native of Kiel, Germany where his father is a shipbuilding engineer. The youth hopes to become a mathematics teacher.

His interests include chess, table tennis, swimming and reading.

Looking forward to his arrival in Upland on Aug. 26 are the three young members of the Kleinman household: Randy a senior and Russell a freshman at Upland high; and Karen Rose, a sixth grader, and Kristine Irene, a second grader at Valencia School.

Evan Wolfe began his duties last week as Public Defender for Sonoma County, according to his mother, Mrs. Walton Wolfe, 1270 W. 14th St.

Wolfe is a native Californian and graduated from Upland High School. He attended Chaffey Junior College.

The new Public Defender graduated from Southwestern University Law School, Los Angeles, last December and took his bar examination in March. He was sworn in as a member of the bar in June.

For six years he was an Orange County Marshall. He and his wife, Lorraine and son Tommy are making their home in Santa Rosa.

Upland Youth Wins Elks' Recognition

Dennis A. Krueger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Krueger of 1497 2nd ave., Upland, has been cited by the Pomona Elks Lodge as a youth leader.

A graduate of Damien high school, Krueger plans to attend St. Mary's College and major in law.

During high school he served as president of the student body, junior class president, sophomore class treasurer, junior chairman of the Prom Committee and was a member of several other organizations. He was top honor student of his graduating class.

ENTERTAINERS -- Jerry Ferrari and Alice will be two of the entertainers to perform at the fund-raising picnic Aug. 24 for Operation Cheer. Many local professionals will take part in the event which will raise funds to send packages overseas to West End servicemen.

Hawaiian Party Slated Aug. 23

The Forty Plus or Minus Club has been the success story of the Alta Loma North tract located between Carnelian and Beryl avenues above 19th street in Alta Loma. This is even truer today when "tight money" and financing is causing major problems in Southern California and the nation.

With financing so difficult to obtain and current interest rates so high, the "Amount of house" that can be bought is becoming increasingly important.

For example, the new 11th unit of Alta Loma North which will be finished in October will show an increase in price of approximately 10 per cent due to lumber and labor cost increases since January of 1969, according to H.D. "Bud" Rice, Hazen Company-Realtors, tract sales manager.

Michael Kabis Four Years Old

Michael Charles Kabis celebrated his fourth birthday Aug. 11 with a party at Upland Memorial Park. Circus lions of paper formed the favors and balloons added to the festivity.

Hazen Co. Realty Plans Open House Aug. 22, 23

"More house for the money" has been the success story of the Alta Loma North tract located between Carnelian and Beryl avenues above 19th street in Alta Loma. This is even truer today when "tight money" and financing is causing major problems in Southern California and the nation.

With financing so difficult to obtain and current interest rates so high, the "Amount of house" that can be bought is becoming increasingly important.

For example, the new 11th unit of Alta Loma North which will be finished in October will show an increase in price of approximately 10 per cent due to lumber and labor cost increases since January of 1969, according to H.D. "Bud" Rice, Hazen Company-Realtors, tract sales manager.

Rice said buyers still have an opportunity to purchase the few remaining homes in the 10th unit at the 1968 prices which are nearly 10 per cent lower for identical models, thus making these houses the "best buy" in the area. Five houses are left at this 1968 price level, including 3, 4 and 5 bedroom plans.

In order to allow the maximum number of visitors to see the models, a Midnite Open House has been planned for Friday and Saturday, Aug. 22 and 23. Refreshments will be available for all visitors and representatives of Hazen Company Realtors will be there to answer questions.

Rice said that in the 11th unit every family can find its special home with 3, 4, and 5 bedroom models in a variety of sizes from 1680 square feet to 2354 square feet. Every model features a formal dining room, large family rooms, all electric kitchens including a dishwasher, draperies throughout, carpeting, front landscaping and sprinklers, and fenced rear yards, all included in the selling price.

Location is another important factor the 1600 feet of elevation accounts for less fog and smog. Although the homes are relatively isolated, sewers are included as well as street lights and sidewalks. These improvements are all in and paid for with no assessments or bonds.

There are five basic floor plans and fifteen exterior plans. When homes are purchased prior to start of construction the buyer may meet with the builder, Mr. N.L. Roy, Home Construction Company, and plan his home to meet specific needs.

Pat Walker's Salon Opens in Montclair Plaza

ANY WOMAN CAN HAVE HER PERFECT FIGURE

By Miss Pat Walker
The Internationally Recognized
Reducing Authority

"Why, oh why, did I wait so long to start a reducing program?" moaned an over weight lady as she came rushing into one of our salons. "Now I'll look absolutely awful in all my summer clothes."

That remark - paraphrased, of course - is repeated many times by patrons who hurried in at the last minute hoping for the impossible - an instant, overnight shape-up.

It's only natural, of course, that a woman should want to look attractive on special occasions. But it's the wise, intelligent female who makes a ritual of looking her best at all times - regardless of age or season.

After all, there are only a few things any woman can be absolutely certain of in this life. She cannot be sure of always having her worldly possessions. There's no irrad insurance against losing husband, family, position, security, happiness and good-fortune. This is not a happy thought but if a woman will honestly face the reality of truth, she will know that this is in truth a fact.

But one thing about which a woman can be certain - as long as she lives - is that her body is the house in which she lives. It's a smart woman and a realistic woman who openly takes inventory of herself and decides whether she's satisfied or not satisfied with the "house she lives in" - and then if dissatisfied, she makes the decision of doing something about improving her figure and appearance.

If a new figure is her decision, she'll feel proud and want to "show off" the "lovelier house" in which she lives. Or, if not, she'll find reasons to hide her figure . . . and to settle for second best.

I feel sad for any woman today who will settle for a poor figure. It is so unnecessary. Perhaps that was woman's fate back when bustles were the vogue - but not today because any woman, regardless of her age or regardless of how long she's had her figure problem can reduce to bone structure and firm and tone to wear her perfect dress size . . . and after reducing she becomes a new personality, thankful that she did not settle for second best and with pride in herself looks forward to a whole new concept on life and what it holds.

And with zest, everyday, she looks forward to - does not dread - every special season of the year!

YOU'LL REDUCE IN ALL THE PLACES YOU SHOULD

As the weather turns warmer, it suddenly makes a woman realize that her figure is so important to her because summer means figure revealing clothes - bathing suits, shorts, capris, and vacation clothes out of storage.

All too often, a woman will tell us how her vacation was ruined because she tried on her previous summer's clothes and found the added inches and weight made it impossible for her to wear them. And after shopping for new clothes, she became demoralized and disheartened because nothing looked the way it should. This resulted in a minimum wardrobe "just to get by" and the excuse of why she didn't want to be seen at a pool or the beach.

It is a shame that all too many women experience this because in truth it need not happen. Today, it is better to invest money in a new figure than try to buy clothes to disguise it. You can buy your figure back just as you would purchase clothes, a furniture, automobile, or anything else.

The only thing is that it is a service and you have to come to the salon to get it.

But, it is nice to know that we make reducing most pleasant and therefore a woman enjoys the time spent with us.

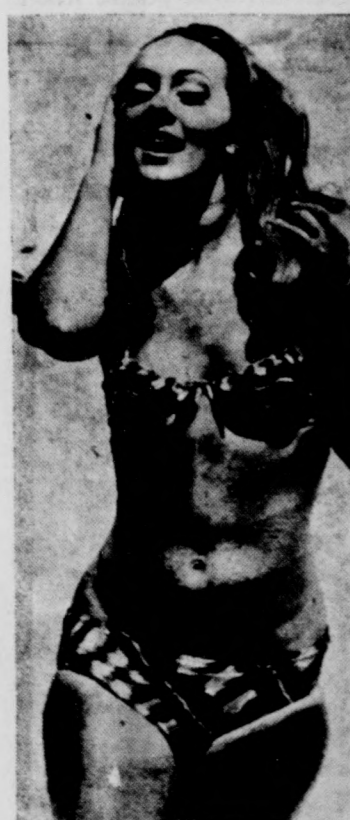

I visit with so many, many women of every age, walk of life and nationality, and each woman thinks her figure problems are so very different from another woman's that it will work for the other woman but not for her.

After a figure analysis, she realizes her figure problem is really not so different and that thousands of others have experienced the same problems that she has and suddenly she regains hope and faith that something can be done for her and her own figure problems. When she has her figure analysis, she knows where she needs to lose, what it will cost her, and how long it will take.

It is a very proud, secure, happy woman who receives compliments and attention for those closest to her because she becomes a new person both in appearance and personality. This has not been luck on her part, she made her own luck when she recognized she had figure problems and came to us for help.

AUSTRALIAN MOVIE ACTRESS REDUCES WITH THE PAT WALKER PROGRAM AND ENJOYS NEW CAREER

as told by
Penny Sugg
Paddington, N.S.W.
Sydney, Australia

"Firstly, I must thank Pat Walker and all the wonderful people who work for her organization, for being so kind and helpful to me.

"I certainly feel that this year I can face the beaches with my head up and my tummy in. "The extraordinary thing is that when you have grown large and you are an actress no one is interested in you. Therefore I gave up caring until one day an important agency was interested in me for a movie.

"Mr. Reg Goldworthy put me up for a screen test and through this I landed a co-star part in a movie called "It Takes All Kinds," plus a five-year contract.

"Someone was actually interested in me and it was then that I STARTED TO LOOK AT MYSELF. AND SO WERE THE CRITICAL PEOPLE IN THE MOVIE BUSINESS. They decided that I was too fat and must lose weight and learn to walk properly with my head held high.

"Unfortunately it was too late to do anything about my overweight until after that movie but I had watched rushes and been interviewed by the Press and felt the whole world thought me ugly, fat and clumsy.

"I had a long talk with my manager Mr. Reg Goldworthy and my director Mr. Eddie Davis and was advised to take my big tubby self down to Pat Walker's to be measured and have a figure analysis.

"Have you ever been terrified of a tape measure? Well I can assure you that I was, & as experienced hands measured me I tried to pull myself in everywhere feeling ashamed of myself and for the first time I realized deep down inside that this weight must go, otherwise there would be no more opportunities for me in acting as there are so many beautiful women in the world.

"I used to visit Mr. Goldworthy to see if he could see results and every time he declared, "Good Heavens, Penny, one day I think you will be slim and I won't be able to call you fatty."

"I think he used to say this to me to encourage me to continue reducing and with his help and the Pat Walker Salon I am slim and tall and my old clothes hang on me as if I was a coat hanger.

We are now on our second movie called "Colour Mr. Dead" and I am very happy when Eddie Davis moves me into a certain position and says, "You stand here skinny."

LONG BEACH WOMAN REDUCES BULGING 201 POUND SIZE 24½ TO A TRIM SIZE 14, REDUCES 68 POUNDS, SHE IS STILL GOING DOWN

In this snapshot you see Mrs. Edith Miller when she weighed 201 pounds and wore a bulging size 24½ dress. Mrs. Miller was disgusted with dieting. She had a difficult time shopping for dresses because so many stores didn't carry her size 24½. Mrs. Miller's dress size problems are gone now that she reduced with Pat Walker's Program. In the next photo you will see her after reducing to a size 14 and is still going down.

In this photograph is Mrs. Edith Miller with Pat Walker, the International Reducing Authority. Mrs. Miller reduced 6½ inches from her underbust, 8 inches from her waist, 9½ inches from her abdomen, 9 inches from her hips, 6½ inches from each thigh and 3 inches from each underarm. Mrs. Miller reduced from a 201 pound size 24½ to a trim size 14 and she is still going down.

Letter from:
Mrs. Edith Miller
Long Beach

I was so tired of going on diets. I would lose a little but would get disgusted with it. Then I would put on more pounds than I would take off. I didn't like to go shopping. I couldn't find anything that would look nice, or else the clerk would say, "Sorry, but I don't have that in your size."

One day my husband suggested that I call Pat Walker's Salon. I did, and I was so pleased the way I was treated that I agreed to take the treatments. It has done wonders for me. My weight started to come down, and the inches started to come off too. I feel better. And the most wonderful thing is now I can walk in a store to buy clothes and say I wear a 14 size, instead of having to say a 24½.

I feel like a new person. My family tells me I look wonderful. I'm so glad that I started with Pat Walker reducing program. It was so easy and restful.

Now, I am a slim Grandmother and also a slim Great Grandmother. I have been asked how I lost weight to look so slim. My answer is "Go See Pat Walker."

NEW COMPUTERIZED REDUCING MAKES ALL OTHERS OBSOLETE

Reducing Authority International Compares the OLD Methods to Her Revolutionary Computerized Equipment and Program

Through the years reducing has been associated with much promise and little produced programs, many owned, franchised or managed by "get in and get out 'promoters' and 'salespeople' who used reducing and the desire of sincere woman as a pawn to further their own personal gains."

This has been a stigma on the reducing business and has always been a thorn in the sides of sincere people dedicated to the field of reducing and the needs of women in the world over.

Many such companies have come and gone, but unfortunately some still exist and will probably continue to exist. But fortunately today a woman is better educated about reducing. She has in many ways been exposed to and experienced the good and the bad. She has heard and read promises made that any intelligent woman knows to be impossible to produce. She has been approached and sometimes fooled into thinking there were devices and programs that could perform miracles in a few short hours and days and that she could pick a dress size she wanted to be and by making an appointment she could in a matter of days be that size.

She's been told if she picked up a phone and was one of the "1st lucky 30" she could reduce for mere pennies.

Or read of one kind or another new "now you can have your cake and eat it too" food fads that perform miracles overnight with the figure. This and many more approaches to reducing have been used to induce a woman to spend money to reduce.

In spite of all that has been said and done in this field there still remains one very well known and recognized fact and that is "the need to reduce and the desire to better oneself is just as strong as it was before."

It is with complete sincerity and pride that I can tell you about our new and revolutionary Reducing program. We now have new equipment and a program that invites comparison; that has dated all reducing methods such as women have known.

Our reducing program eliminates guesswork, obsolete equipment and idle promises. A program that faces a woman's reducing problems realistically.

This, I might say, has not been an easy or uncostly project. Much time, experience, research and development has gone into such a program. But the outcome of such a project is new equipment and a program complete in every aspect that faces all phases of a woman's reducing problems thoroughly, scientifically and realistically.

The snapshot above shows Penny Sugg, Australian movie actress, when she was 146 pounds. Movie cameras accentuate every curve so she had to reduce to obtain a new contract. With the Pat Walker Program she reduced to 130 pounds and 38 inches overall. Below you see a photograph of Penny Sugg after reducing at Pat Walker's. Penny reduced 2½ inches from her under-bust; 3½ inches from her waist; 4½ inches from her abdomen, 2 inches from her hips and 7 inches from her thighs.

L. A. Sheriffs Office Aims At 'Better Understanding'

In cooperation with educators and school administrators, the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department has developed a comprehensive educational program designed to create in our youth an understanding of society based upon law and order.

After considerable analysis, it became apparent that in order to effectively combat the rising incidence of crime and delinquency, the community must develop an awareness of the role of law enforcement in a free society. It was also evident that nowhere in our educational system was there a course designed to bring about this awareness and to develop an appreciation and rapport between students and law enforcement.

It was with this thought in mind that the Sheriff's Department designed and implemented an educational program to instill in our youth a realistic understanding of the administration of criminal justice. This program will involve as teachers, college-trained Sheriff's deputies, holding accredited California Teaching credentials.

30 MONTHS OLD
Approximately two and one-half years ago, with the aid and cooperation of the City of Temple City and the Temple City Unified School District, the Sheriff's Department instituted the first educational program designed to provide students with a panoramic picture of the legal framework of our society. The course was directed toward the 7th and 8th grade students of Oak Avenue Intermediate School and soon became second in popularity only to football. The course, entitled, "Citizen and the Law," received the endorsement of educators, civic officials, businessmen and parents.

As a result of the success of the pilot program, the Department has embarked on a new program of courses entitled "Student and the Law." These courses, which expand the concept of "Citizen and the Law," were developed for use in elementary, junior high, high school and adult school levels. In them, the students will learn about civil and criminal law and about their rights and responsibilities as citizens. The courses are also designed to tell the student what law enforcement is and why it is important in a free society.

JUNIOR HIGH
As mentioned, the course which will be taught at the junior high level originated as the "Citizen and the Law" program. The course is taught with the idea of developing certain key concepts within the students. The primary ideological factor being pursued is that along with rights and freedoms guaranteed by the law, comes a responsibility for respecting the law.

Two courses are being offered at the high school level. Electives in the social science field, they may be taken by students in grades 10 through 12. First semester course, "Student and the Law" is designed for those who are interested in the role law enforcement plays in their lives and community. This course will cover the relationships between law enforcement and the community, and basic law as it relates to youth. The second semester course, "Introduction to Law Enforcement," is designed especially for those students interested in pursuing a career in one of the various fields of law enforcement and will include a complete overview of the administration of justice.

College credit will be given by several colleges for any student who completes both these courses.

ADULT COURSE
At the adult school level a course entitled "The Challenge of Crime in a Free Society" is for adults who wish to further their knowledge of law, the crime problem and role of enforcement agencies within their community. Designed to promote a better understanding of law, judicial process and law enforcement agencies they face daily.

Another program being offered is the "Law Enforcement Education Officer Program" whereby a credentialed Deputy Sheriff is assigned to a school district as a Law Enforcement Education Officer. He divides his time among various schools of junior high school and high school level. In junior highs, 2 separate 1-hour courses will be presented in grades 7 through 9. In high schools a two-hour comprehensive presentation will be conducted for grades 10 through 12. Involving frank discussions with teenagers relative to police-community problems, they are intended to break down existing animosities toward law enforcement.

At the elementary level a supplementary program is being offered known as "Adopt a Deputy" in a concerted effort on the part of the Sheriff's Department to generate a feeling of understanding, friendship and rapport between grade school children and the "adopted" deputy, who is regularly assigned to patrol the school area.

If society intends to stem the rising tide of criminality, the educational program as outlined is an absolute necessity.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess, 211 W. Temple St., Los Angeles, 90012. Attention: Student and the Law Program.

Delinquent Tax List To Be Published Soon

Annually, on or before September 8, the State Law prescribes the publication of all real property that was sold to the State of California for non-payment of the total amount due for taxes, assessments and other charges for the previous fiscal year.

A list of all property sold to the state on June 30, 1969 for delinquent taxes for the fiscal year 1968-69 will be published in the San Bernardino Evening Telegram and will appear in the publications of September 5, 12, and 19, 1969.

Copies of the publication will be mailed, upon request; such requests must be received on or before September 1, 1969 and addressed to Tax Sales-Publication Division, County Tax Collector, 3rd Floor, Hall of Records, San Bernardino, Calif. 92401. Requests received before the above date will be mailed direct from the San Bernardino Evening Telegram Office on or about September 5, 1969.

No Need To Be Hypochondriac Over Possible Heart Attack

It is significant that once a man has had a heart attack, doctors usually urge him to change his way of life -- in hopes of preventing a second attack.

Then why not also try to protect the man who is heading for a heart attack before it happens?

One argument is that not everyone is equally susceptible.

But the central fact is that a majority of us is more or less susceptible in terms of known risks we harbor. By doing nothing, thousands of men and women are being abandoned to their fate while they have a hopeful chance to prevent disaster. By being too slow and cautious in correcting our abuse of abundance and prosperity, many young and middle-aged men will keep on collision course with heart attacks.

Your counterattack is neither radical nor difficult. Countermeasures are simple and alluring old habits can be modified. No one need be afraid of every shadow and statistic, every egg on his plate, every cigarette or cigar smoked, and every vague pain. Adults "must learn to distinguish between moderation and abuse," says Dr. Irvin H. Page. "Two packs of cigarettes a day to me is an abuse. Too much fat or too many calories is an abuse. Drinking during most parts of the day is an abuse. Doing no physical work is an abuse. The answer lies in disciplining one's self, not in forbidding."

The best prescription is one you can formulate for yourself -- stop abusing the good things in our abundant life, and use today's knowledge in hopes of saving your heart.

Contact the County Heart Association, 760 N. D St., San Bernardino, or call 888-0391, for further information about the heart and blood vessels diseases.

Commodore Perry coined the term "Navy Bean" while eating lunch one day out on Lake Erie during a British assault.

More Passengers At OIA But Fewer Flights In July

ONTARIO-More passengers but fewer planes were counted last month at Ontario International Airport.

The increased passengers, officials noted, indicates more booking on commercial flights. The decline in flight operations is seen in private aircraft, they said.

During July, the airport had 67,125 passengers and 13,548 flights. This compares with the previous July of 44,470 and 17,225.

Last month's totals increased the number of passengers so far this year to 400,061, and flight operations to 93,122.

The July passengers included 58,764 on scheduled flights.

The flight operations were: air carrier, 2,050; commuter, 672; civil, 9744 and military, 1,082. During the month, the airport handled 62,788 pounds of air freight and 3,824 pounds of air express.

Pettis Pushes For Tougher Drug Penalties

WASHINGTON - Congressman Jerry L. Pettis, (R-Loma Linda), said today that there exists a "horrible paucity" of laws dealing with the transportation of narcotic drugs across state lines. Also, there are no federal laws making it illegal for an adult to employ or enlist the employment of a juvenile in an illegal drug transaction.

"This is a huge and frightening gap in our criminal law which must immediately be filled," Pettis stated.

Pettis will introduce legislation immediately after the current recess which would impose a maximum sentence of life imprisonment, and a minimum term of 10 years in the federal penitentiary, on those persons who, while non-addicted themselves, transport narcotic drugs across state lines. His proposed legislation would also attach similar penalties to those adults who employ or seek to employ juveniles in illegal drug transactions.

"We can hardly be too severe with those who seek to profit from a crime which destroys lives and is especially aimed at young people," Pettis said. "The federal government can provide significant aid to law enforcement agencies with this legislation."

Fontana Art Group Slates Aug. Festival

Contending that there is an art involved in helping people to relate to one another, the Fontana Art Association will host an International Food and Art Festival on August 22, 23, and 24, 1969. The event will be held at the Fontana Square Shopping Center on Foothill Blvd. in Fontana.

"People of various races, nationalities and religions have a tendency to either stay in their own little groups, or to seek their own kind," said Mrs. William V. Brown, Manager-coordinator of the Art Association. "People and society in general have much to lose when there is no interchange of ideas and social events," she asserted.

The public is cordially invited. The hours are from 11 A.M. to 7 P.M. Admission is free. Come for lunch, then enjoy the art show and stay for dinner. Food will be sold to eat here or to be taken out.

A Flea Market will also be held where no piece of art can be sold for over $15.00.

From Clyde Thomas, New Orleans, La.: I remember life as a child in a small town in Mississippi. The modern teenager would turn up his nose and say "it's not my bag," or some similar comment, but I hold fond memories of milking a cow on a frosty morning, chopping wood for the kitchen stove, and helping mother wash clothes out in the backyard.

Father always had a garden and for every member of our large family there was a share in the work as well as in the crop. An hour or so planting potatoes or chopping out the corn preceded any late-afternoon ball game.

No power mowers in those days, so keeping the lawn cut was a weekly task that took an hour or more and usually a few blisters were raised in the process of pushing the reel-type mower back and forth across the big expanse of green.

Money was scarce in those days, too. True enough, it cost about one-tenth as much to go to a movie as it does today... but a dime would buy a lot more than it does now. Most kids I knew had to earn their spending money. An allowance? I never had one. I don't think I knew any kids who had one, either.

It didn't cost much to go fishing. Young boys would dig their worms, catch crayfish with their hands, or trap minnows in a glass jug filled with corn meal.

I'm prejudiced, perhaps, but I think life was more fun in those days — and kids knew how to make the most of it.

Data Design Observes 10th Anniversary, Aug. 16

Twentieth Century man is creating a completely new world for himself and in the process has created a technological revolution.

Playing an active and vital role in this revolution is Data-Design Laboratories which, in its new corporate offices in Cucamonga next Saturday, August 16, celebrates its 10th anniversary. The company has been a Pomona Valley resident from the beginning, operating plants at various times in Ontario and Pomona as well as Cucamonga.

Since its founding in 1959 by a group of engineers interested solely in developing technical data, the company has experienced growth and success beyond all normal expectations. DDL became publicly owned in 1962 and today its stock is traded over-the-counter. Data-Design's consolidated sales for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1969 and approximately $5,500,000 as compared to sales of $141,000 for its first year of operation.

Today, with ten operating facilities located in various parts of the country, Data-Design has evolved into a diversified, science-oriented manufacturing company specializing in communication, education and personnel training, oceanography and aviation, employing 300 people.

What makes Data-Design different? Chairman of the Board and President Thomas C. Beiseker said recently he feels that what differentiates the company is its corporate philosophy and the quality of its managerial and technical staff.

"We're oriented towards growth," Beiseker said. "Our basic criterion for developing new products or services or for making acquisitions is demonstrated growth potential. Only in that way can we fulfill our own growth requirements."

This corporate philosophy was applied recently when Data-Design negotiated an agreement to acquire Radyne, Inc., a privately held company located in Chatsworth. Radyne develops and produces advanced microwave antenna systems and precision electro-mechanical automatic tracking gimbals for the aerospace industry. A few weeks ago, Radyne was awarded a contract for an electro-magnetic pulse simulator which represents a considerable advance in the state-of-art.

"Performance and cost are the keys; a better product for the same cost, or as good a product for a lower cost, are the avenues to success," Beiseker noted.

Knowledge of the field or its product is almost as important to Beiseker. Thus, Radyne will operate under its present management, as a subsidiary of Data-Design.

Corporate philosophy also includes careful planning to provide adequate money and time for development.

"Being relatively small," Beiseker said, "Data-Design could destroy itself by going wildly into a poorly planned, poorly funded program. Because of this we turn our backs on programs and products we feel we can't handle."

"It is essential that growth be properly and adequately supported. We work to maintain a sound financial structure."

Radyne is Data-Design's sixth operating entity. The other five are:

Data-Design Laboratories. The parent company and corporate headquarters are located in the 34-acre Haven Industrial Park in Cucamonga. Support facilities are located in Silver Springs, Maryland, Virginia Beach, Virginia, and Alexandria, Virginia. DDL covers the fields of systems engineering, design, and manufacturing, particularly in these areas: counter measures, all band intercept radar, computer technology, simulators of various types, telemetry.

WEIGHT WATCHER'S POTATO SALAD

DRESSING

- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup vinegar
- 2 tablespoons salad oil
- 1/2 cup buttermilk

DRESSING: Blend sugar, cornstarch, mustard, salt, pepper, paprika and water. Cook over medium heat until thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Stir in vinegar, then oil. Gradually beat in buttermilk until dressing is smooth and creamy. Use as dressing over "Weight Watcher's Potato Salad". Can be stored in refrigerator and used as needed. Makes one cup.

SALAD: Combine hot potatoes with dressing, salt, pepper. Toss gently. Add remaining ingredients, toss gently again. Chill and serve. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

SALAD

- 6 cups cooked, hot sliced Washington State Potatoes (3 or 6)
- 1 cup dressing
- 1/2 cup dressing
- 1/2 cup dressing
- 1/2 cup dressing
- 1/2 cup dressing
- 1/2 cup dressing
- 1/2 cup dressing

Aid-To-Education Bill Gains Committee Okay

SACRAMENTO -- Assemblyman John V. Briggs (R-35th) recently disclosed the results of the Conference Committee Report on AB-606, the major school finance bill. The Legislature promised to increase the state's participation in financing local education, and although these amounts are not as much as we had originally anticipated, they significantly fulfill the pledge we made and will help our local districts enormously," commented Briggs following the release of the Committee Report to members of the Legislature.

Briggs said the bill will increase the total amount of aid to education statewide by $134 million in 1969-70, with $2,264,739 allocated to the San Bernardino County school districts.

Chaffey Junior college district, $51,855; Chaffey high school, $170,624; Ontario-Montclair $900,558; Upland $257,183.

The bill has yet to be passed in its present form by both houses and approved and signed by the Governor.

Briggs pointed out that the funds for this financing measure will not come from new or additional taxes, but rather from funds either already budgeted by the Governor or monies left over from last year's budget.

A strong supporter of the bill since its inception, Briggs stated, "A recent poll taken among residents of my 35th Assembly District indicated that this is the kind of school financing my constituents want. My support of this measure reflects the thinking of a vast majority of the voters in our district as measured by the results of my district-wide questionnaire."

The Conference Committee Report will go before both the Assembly and Senate as a Special Order of Business last week and passage is hoped for prior to adjournment.

Chaffey Communities' Cultural Center -- Link With Past

By Jenny Kirkpatrick
Did you ever wish to go back in time to another era, even if it was for an hour or so? A chance to do just that is very close at hand when you visit the museum on West 18th street, which is sponsored by the Chaffey Communities Cultural Center.

Major Domo and a moving force behind the museum is Mrs. Beatrice Riggs, president, of Chaffey Communities Cultural Center. She has breathed life into the museum and has made it a delightful place to view the years gone by and to linger awhile in past times and ponder what kind of life those people faced without our modern conveniences.

The museum itself is a bit of a relic, but that does not take away its value nor beauty. It started its life out as in 1911 as St. Mark's Episcopal church on the corner of "P" street and Euclid avenue, a very beautiful building with dark brown shingles and a red tile roof.

It was designed by A.G. Benton, a famed designer of many Episcopal churches in southern California. He also, designed the Mission Inn, Riverside and Lucky Baldwin's Queen Ann Cottage.

The murals on the inside walls were done by Harry McFee and consist of the Shields of the Apostles along the walls and a gold cross above the altar. It is estimated that it took McFee five years to design, do research and paint the murals.

In 1965 the members of St. Marks found that this building was no longer large enough for their growing membership and it was decided to sell this attractive building.

A group of citizens in the area got together and gathered funds to save the building. However, lack of parking spaces at its location meant the building would have to be moved.

The City of Upland leased five acres on West 18th street to the group. The site had some historical significance as it was the site of the first public school in Upland, the 18th street school.

As soon as the site was cleared and the foundation put in funds were raised to move the church to the new location. By 1966, the old church building was ready to move. It was cut into three pieces for the move. To avoid being a hazard on Euclid avenue, the church pieces were moved at 2 a.m. It took the movers three nights to complete the job.

After the building was settled, the necessary repairs were made and a museum was born. The church still retains its charm and serves quite well as the home of a cultural center housing the historical artifacts of the area.

The first birthday of the new museum found it in a state of disarrangement. Even though a party was hosted by the Zonta club of Ontario-Upland, there were no lights, no parking lot and no heat. The cold wind whistled through the cuts in the building, the celebration was held by the light of a kerosene lamp, the hardships did not daunt the group. It only made them more determined to carry on the work.

By the time the 1967 birthday rolled around, there had been some improvements, the addition of heat and lights. When the 1968 birthday arrived, the museum was much improved, with a parking lot, sidewalks on the street side, street lights, parking lot lights, trees in both the parkway and parking lot were added. Many of the items were made possible by the clubs and organizations in the city pitching in.

The Upland-Foothill Kiwanis club gave chandeliers, other chandeliers were gotten from the old Upland junior high school. Girls Scouts in the area placed trees in the parkway, the Upland Host Kiwanis donated a camellia garden and four trees for the parking lot and the Upland Woman's club put in the street side sidewalks and aprons. Many displays were given by people of the community who wanted to share their early memories.

Some of the things that can be seen at the museum are, an Indian collection, shells from all over the world, an eye glass display donated through the courtesy of local optometrists, a mother's pantry, a tool collection, doll collection and many other things.

Now that the museum is well on its way and has become a focal point for citizens young and old, there are plans to expand and add a new building. The old building will be used for special shows, classes for art and many other things for community growth.

Schools and youth organizations as well as out of town visitors come to the museum, a history class from University of California, Riverside, also uses the building, civic groups have held meetings there and a monthly program is offered. Many hours of work are put in by volunteers and without their help the museum could not survive.

It is hoped by the members of the cultural center that people will continue to take an interest, to enjoy the museum and to help when needed.

MEMORIES OF LEMON GROWING DAYS -- Mrs. Beatrice Riggs, president of the Chaffey Communities Cultural Center, displays an early smudge pot used in lemon groves in the area. She is standing in front of a display of symbols used for many years by the growers to tell of the different brands of lemons and oranges. This year marks the 75th anniversary of the Sunkist Growers Association and the 50th year of the Liberty Groves in Upland. The display may be seen at the museum on West 18th street.

The hours of the museum are 2 to 4 p.m., Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. Mrs. Beatrice Riggs, 986-8049 will be glad to answer questions.

DOLLS TEA PARTY -- One of the displays at the Chaffey Communities Cultural Center's Museum on West 18th street depicts a dolls tea party. The clothes and dishes are authentic and were donated by many members of the community.

Ontario--Upland Board of Realtors

Landscaping Valuable Asset to Property

By Milton Stone,
President, Ontario-Upland Board of Realtors

It has been said that a tree on a city lot is worth $1,500.

That depends on where the lot is in what city, but it does point out the value of landscaping to your property. Any Realtor or other real estate broker will confirm that a well landscaped home or apartment building sells quicker and at a better price than one that is not.

The obvious reason is that we are becoming more appreciative of the beauty of foliage and its affect on our lives and are willing to pay for it. We are also becoming more aware of its practicality.

IMPACT SOFTENED

The right shrubs and trees can screen a busy street and soften its impact without blocking it out completely. Plantings can provide privacy between neighbors without shutting out friendliness. A tree dappling your house with shade on a hot summer's day can lower the temperature 10 degrees.

Landscaping can provide you with a menagerie of squirrels and birds and patterns of light, shade and color. Emergence of landscape architecture as a more widespread vocation has made us generally dissatisfied with simple rectangles of green lawn and a few plantings around the foundation. Hardly a factory or building of consequence is completed now without professional landscaping adding a touch of nature's beauty. When new civic buildings are constructed, the impact of the landscaping often is as satisfying to the citizenry as the grace of the building itself.

We are exposed constantly to masterful jobs of landscaping along freeways, in parks, in malls, and wealthier neighborhoods.

If you knew how a fish felt when he got out of bed you'd have a better chance of catching him!

The problem, of course, is to diagnose fish moods. Since most anglers can't converse with them (although some claim this distinction), it's difficult to learn how fish greet the day.

Knowing what factors influence fish behavior can add to your angling success, say the fishing authorities at Mercury outboards. Sky condition, water temperature and water color all determine a fish's disposition. Successful anglers read this mood and match it with the correct casting technique.

In muddied or brown water fish are less likely to venture from their normal lies. They're reluctant to move any distance to investigate a lure or bait. This means an angler must cast almost directly over the fish to get his attention. Casts should be more frequent with less distance between them.

In clear water fish are more eager and will travel farther seeking food. Therefore, fewer casts are needed, and the fisherman can work a larger territory.

Warm water is the result of hot weather, and fish aren't much different from fishermen at this time. They're lethargic and won't move about any more than is necessary. Again, this calls for more frequent casts to place the lure near enough to excite the fish. Cool water stimulates fish, causing them to move more. Anglers get by with fewer casts covering more water with each.

Sky conditions, particularly during warm months, also influence how fish act. If the sun comes up hot, fish stop moving at dawn, holding in one lie until evening. More casts are needed to put the lure in favorable areas. However, if dawn arrives with an overcast sky and a hint of light showers, fish will often feed on through the rain. Consequently, fewer casts are needed to connect with these carefree ramblers.

CREATES DEMAND

This has had the effect of creating a demand for an imaginative variety of plants, flowers, shrubs and trees at nurseries, making it profitable for them to carry such a stock at reasonable prices.

Familiarity with them has helped nurserymen advise homeowners how to plant and care for them to an extent that didn't exist not too many years ago.

This awareness of the contribution natural greenery can make to living is spreading in other ways as well. Experiments with pocket parks in the midst of our cities, small retreats of foliage, fountains, birds, flowers, and peacefulness, have been so successful that we can expect wider use of them. They are one answer to the charge that our cities are becoming bleak seas of asphalt and concrete.

It's as if urban mankind is trying to get back some of the basic satisfaction there always has been in getting dirt under his fingernails as he cultivates the soil, the enjoyment of a walk through woods and meadows.

SIDE BENEFIT

A side benefit of this understanding of landscaping is that the homeowner who doesn't want to spend a lot of time and effort on keeping up his plantings doesn't need to. The right plants can actually reduce his maintenance chores.

As a Realtor, I would advise any property owner to provide good landscaping around his home or other building. Aside from the satisfaction it is bound to contribute to living there, it will contribute dollars to his pocket when and if he sells.

All I can do is ask.

A-L Swim Club Honors Summer's Top Swimmers

After finishing all dual meets and the Meet of Champions the members of the Alta Loma Swimming and Diving Club and their parents held an award night celebration on Aug. 10 at the school pool.

Coach Gailliot thanked all parents and swimmers for their cooperation during the season. He stressed that the main short-coming of the team was the shortage of swimmers. The club thanked him for the inspirational leadership of the young swimmers.

Awards were presented to the following swimmers:

MOST VALUABLE

At Cage Clinic

LOS ANGELES—Alan Rhodes of 748 Birch, Upland, recently attended Pepperdine College's ninth annual Coaching Clinic, "The Big One," which was held June 23-28.

Rhodes was among 300 other coaches from all over the country who participated in the week long session, which featured foremost collegiate and professional coaches.

Football headlines on this year's Clinic program were Ohio State's Woody Hayes and Tennessee's Doug Dickey. Hayes' Buckeyes emerged at last year's National Champions by virtue of a dramatic victory over O.J. Simpson and the USC Trojans in the Rose Bowl.

'People-Oriented' Beauties CP Candidates In Contest

One had to be coaxed by her roommate into entering the contest, and the other was entered as an alternate when, in a stroke of luck, two other girls decided to drop out of competition. Today, Maja Hanks and Shirley Combe, coeds at California State Polytechnic College, Kellogg-

Voorhis, Pomona find themselves in the running for the title of Los Angeles County Fair Queen.

Maja Hanks

Shirley Combe

Miss Hanks, a green-eyed honey blonde, read about the fair queen competition in the student newspaper, but only entered the competition after constant goading by her dorm roommate, Tracy Gary.

An 18-year-old social sciences sophomore, she reigned as Miss Claremont in 1968. She was a 1968 graduate of Claremont high school. She has traveled extensively in Europe, Japan, Hong Kong, Australia, Tahiti, and Canada with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hanks of LaVerne.

Animals are her passion. "I especially like to watch them play—cats, horses, dogs—anything," she says. An able equestrienne, she rides in Poly's Sunday afternoon horse shows during the regular school year. Her favorite place is her native San Francisco. "There's so much of anything and everything there," she explains.

Given all the free time she wanted, Miss Hanks would "learn about people—get a lot around me, then branch out and maybe travel some more."

Miss Combe is also people-oriented, claiming that sitting on the beach in the summer and watching people is one of her favorite pastimes. She was originally chosen to represent Sigma Phi Delta in the competition as an alternate selection. But when the club's two other representatives dropped out at the last minute, she was thrust into the contest.

A 20-year-old foods and nutrition junior, she attended Berry College in Georgia for a year.

She contrasts the east coast with the west coast. "The West is about a year and a half ahead in music tastes and permitting more individuality in dress than the East." Eastern clothing is plain, non-mod, and either very dark or very pale, she explains. Few boys have long hair there, and girls wear their skirts longer.

Her interest in clothing and grooming is understandable -- she plans to be a home economist and seek her master's degree in clothing design. Currently, she works at a fabric store in Pomona.

She would like to pospone marriage until her mid-or late twenties, and then she hopes to find someone who "likes people for what they are, and who wants more out of life than children and work."

She resides at 695 E. Kingsley, Pomona, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Combe.

The girls were chosen to represent Cal Poly in May by a judges' panel of radio personalities.

They will compete against coeds from LaVerne, Citrus, and Mt. San Antonio Colleges in August for the queen title. All girls will be members of the royal court.

The coed chosen as queen will appear at various public functions throughout the year. Basis of selection is personality, poise, speaking ability, and beauty.

Cal Poly's last queen was animal science major Kit Heberlein in 1967.

Lockheed Appointments

ONTARIO-A series of new Lockheed Aircraft Service Company management appointments were announced recently by LAS president D. O. Wood as a move to provide increased support to the company's aircraft maintenance and product manufacturing activities.

Walter H. Snyder of Glendora was named LAS director of maintenance and modification sales and marketing. Snyder, formerly LAS western region sales director, will be in charge of marketing at the company's five aircraft maintenance facilities.

John W. Eagle, Jr. of Cucamonga succeeded Snyder as director of sales - western region. Eagle had formerly held sales and engineering positions with the company.

He lives at 7850 Sierra Vista in Cucamonga.

Louis J. Barnard was appointed LAS director of industrial relations. He had served as assistant director of industrial relations for the past year. He resides at 1879 Baxter Way, Upland.

Douglas H. Christensen was appointed manager of LAS housing systems, responsible for world-wide operations of Lockheed's Panel Lock low-cost housing program. He lives at 845 Orchid Court, Upland.

Lockheed Aircraft Service Company, a division of Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, operates seven aircraft maintenance bases and product manufacturing divisions nationally from headquarters at Ontario, Calif.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

CHRISTIAN CHARITY

Many of us are much too cynical. We often suspect the motives of some honest individual who seeks nothing more than to do a good deed just for the sake of doing it.

We are quick to criticize others, slow to question our own thoughts and actions. We believe that everything and everyone is working on an "angle." And, all the while we work angles of our own. We're nice to someone we meet if we believe they are in a position to help us in business, or in social circles. We don't have as much time for old friends and acquaintances if we feel they can no longer be of help to us in some way.

We have, some of us, forgotten the meaning of Christian charity. It isn't complicated. It is a simple approach to everyday living. It is an approach that seeks the good in all things; an approach that demands to be shown, not merely told; that is willing to separate the chaff from the wheat rather than throw everything away.

We should remember that life — and people — can never be all good or all bad. We should remember to never question another man's actions unless we know why he acts the way he does, and why he does things a little bit differently than we would do them. In our own conduct, we should question the choice or option that seems most appealing. Would we criticize the action we are about to take if it were another's move rather than our own?

A sense of Christian charity will provide the answer.

Fall Just Around The Corner For Planting

If you feel it is too early to be thinking about planting bulbs, a look at the calendar will show that fall is just around the corner. And if you would enjoy the spring carnival of color provided by bulbs, they must be planted during the coming week.

Members of the California Association of Nurserymen are now beginning to receive shipments of fall bulbs, and as each week passes, more and more will be available. It is a wise gardener who shops frequently and early for these blooming delights as he is assured of getting the exact varieties, colors and flower forms he desires.

The person who thinks bulb choices are limited to daffodils, tulips and hyacinths should also consider crocus, anemones, ranunculus, freesias, and crape hyacinths, the latter resembling tiny purplish grapes on short stems which lend themselves to accenting borders and mass plantings.

Though some of the bulbs are lesser known and with strange sounding names, nonetheless they provide loads of color from early winter to late spring.

Most of the fall bulbs should be planted as soon as possible, tulips being the exception. Tulips should be chilled in the refrigerator until at least mid-November and even longer in warm winter areas and then immediately planted in the garden, as deep as 9 inches in well-drained soils. Mass them in clusters of the same color for the maximum effect.

Daffodils and narcissus (same family) offer many scintillating flower forms in appealing colors. Don't overlook the double and ruffled varieties. You owe it to yourself to try the more unusual ones and once you've tried them, you'll never be without them in your garden. This is true of most fall bulbs. Bulbs need to be massed as planted sparingly, they get lost in the garden expanse.

Peter Hurkos At Hartford

Peter Hurkos, who's psychic powers have been used by police in 17 countries to solve crimes and locate missing persons, will appear in person next week at the Huntington Hartford Theatre, opening a limited engagement Friday, Aug. 22.

The mentalist, who most recently gained wide acclaim with his work on the "Boston Strangler" murders, will display his ESP abilities.

often using volunteers from the audience, in 12 performances only.

Presented through Aug. 30 by the Hollywood Wing of the Greek Theatre Association, the attraction will be seen in a new performance schedule at the Hartford: 7 and 9:45 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays, including opening night, and at 8:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday nights, with no matinees.

MSAC Announces Additions To Spring's Honor Listing

Due to an inadvertent omission, the names of 89 Mt. San Antonio College students did not appear on the Spring Dean's List published in July. A total of 602 students earned places on the list, with a 3.0 (B) grade point average or better while completing 12 or more units for the semester.

Three scholars whose names were omitted made perfect 4.0 (A) grade point averages. They were Marilyn R. Goldshine, Jean Ann Holtz, Pomona; and Ethelyn Pearl Ward, Diamond Bar.

DIAMOND BAR -- Katherine Morones and Sheila Lynn Reeves.

LA VERNE -- Lovita Fern Brown, Robert M. Brown, Phyllis L. Peters, Rebecca Ann Snyder and Anton John Vrabel.

ROWLAND HEIGHTS -- Helen E. Dice and Kristine Mae Hagstrom.

WALNUT -- Richard A. Armstrong, Kathy Jo Bylund, Franklin J. Girard and Victor Edward Vert.

A large committee of representatives from Mexican-American organizations of the Pomona Valley is assiduously making plans for a fiesta, "Jamaica Cultural", to be held on the Pomona Mall Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, September 5, 6, and 7. The purpose of the fiesta is to strengthen appreciation of our Mexican-Indian heritage and at the same time will provide opportunities for raising funds for the "Barrio House" and scholarships for Chicano youth living in the area.

Organizations participating in the planning are as follows: Association of Mexican-American Educators, Mexican-American Political Association (MAPA), United Mexican-American Students (UMAS), League of United Citizens to Help Dope Addicts, (LUCHA), Los Cherries, Las Guadalupeñas, and the Ethies.

The fiesta activities will show the customs, talents, arts, crafts, and cultural influences of our rich Mexican heritage. For this reason the committee is seeking talented Mexicans and Americans of Mexican descent who may be unaffiliated with any particular organization but who have important contributions to make: singers, dancers, instrumentalists, creative artists, skilled craftsmen, or gourmet chefs. Anyone knowing of such talents should call Ward Walker at 623-7381, or write "Jamaica Cultural" at 256 S. Garey ave., Pomona.

Candidates are still being sought for the "Reina Mexicana", fiesta queen contest, open to single Mexican-American girls from 16 to 22 years of age. Also nominees for "Mexican Mother of the Year."

People with authentic Mexican or Indian costumes are urged to join the contest where prizes will be awarded for the best in both adult and child categories. Historical objects from Mexico, Spain, and Early California are now being gathered for display in store windows along the mall during the week of the fiesta. Those with objects to lend are asked to contact the fiesta committee.

According to Walker some excellent entertainment has already been lined up, including a mariachi group from the Club Los Gallitos del Valle, Ronnie and the Casuals, and a 16-piece stage band, the Barons, featuring Larry Hager on the trumpet and playing Latin music Glenn Miller style. Because the aim of the fiesta is to raise funds for the educational endeavors of Chicano youth of the area, these entertainers are donating their services.

Walker said that an old-time Mexican deep-pit barbecue will be prepared in the fiesta area - in the lot immediately west of the Main st. branch of the United California Bank - and served, starting Friday evening, during the period of the fiesta. In accordance with Mexican custom, the meat will be placed in the pit and covered with cactus before cooking.

"Mexican dance groups, Blessing of the animals, pinata-breaking will also be part of the festivities," he said.

Life Begins At 62, Sept. 15 At Los Angeles County Fair

POMONA—Life begins at 62 at this year's Los Angeles County Fair — especially on Monday, September 15.

The exposition, in cooperation with the Los Angeles County Department of Senior Citizens Affairs, will open its gates on that day to all persons 62 years of age or older for the special price of 75 cents.

Long a fair tradition, the exposition's Senior Citizens Day will feature much more for visitors than a special admission price. A program for senior citizens will be presented in the fair's amphitheater beginning at 1 p.m., prize drawings will begin at 1:30 p.m., and even fair trams will run at the special rate of 15 cents for golden age visitors.

In the evening, senior citizens may sit in a reserve section to watch the exposition's free grandstand show for that night, the National Ballet of Mexico, beginning at 8,

Tickets for the special day may be ordered now by mailing a check or money order for the number desired to the fair administration office, P. O. Box 2250, Pomona, 91766. Tickets will also be on sale at fair gates on Senior Citizens Day beginning at 10 a.m.

Coogan-March 'Odd Couple'

An all-new production of Neil Simon's "The Odd Couple," will be presented at the Huntington Hartford Theatre early next month.

Hal March and Jackie Coogan will play the mismatched roommates in the hilarious (and autobiographical) Simon comedy, which will open a limited engagement Wednesday, Sept. 3.

To be presented through Sept. 20 by the Hollywood Wing of the Greek Theatre Association, the Stan Seiden production will be seen on the same performance schedule as the recently announced Aug. 22-30 engagement of psychic Peter Hurkos: 8:30 p.m. weeknights, at 7 and 9:45 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays, with no matinees.

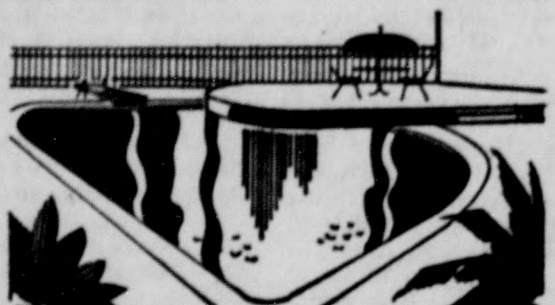

FOR THE FAMILY
MANAGER

ITEM: You can easily check the comparative root behaviour — and the health of your pot plants. Dump the root ball gently from the container. If the plants are in clay pots you'll notice that roots extend all the way out to the porous walls of the pot. That's because roots must have air which they only get continuously in clay pots. Roots of plants in synthetic non-porous containers become ingrown at their center for lack of air at the walls of the pots.

Circle B Earns Second A

The Circle B Scout Ranch, owned and operated by the Old Baldy Council, Boy Scouts of America, has been awarded an "A" rating for its camp operation. The coveted award was presented by the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America to Council Chairman Warren Cliburn for the second year in a row. The award is given for excellence in all phases of camp operation including program, administration, health and safety, camp maintenance and long range planning.

The camp, which has been operating for the past fifteen summers, is located in the Southern High Sierras near Kennedy Meadows and the So. Fork of the Kern River. To date, almost 1000 boys and leaders have participated in the camp's challenging program.

A special feature of this year's operation has been its non-Scout camping program. Through this program and in cooperation with several local government agencies, boys who are not now Scouts are invited to participate in a week's camping experience. By the end of the summer, more than 100 such boys will have enjoyed the thrills of camping at circle B for the first time.

In accepting the flag signifying the "A" Rating honor, Cliburn stated that "most of the credit should go to the camp staff, adult leaders and boys in camp. They make the thing go." Special recognition should be given to the camp staff under the leadership of Camp Director Darwin Henrie of Pomona, Assistant Camp Director Ken Catalano of Upland and Program Director Bob Lindboe of Upland.

The Service Center for the Old Baldy Council, Boy Scouts of America, is located at 120 West San Jose Avenue, Claremont. They are a participating agency of the Los Angeles County United Crusade, West End and Fontana United Funds.

Mocha Fluff

- 1 1/2 tbsps. unflavored gelatin
- 3/4 cup cold water
- 1 1/2 tbsps. artificial liquid sweetener
- 2 cups hot, strong coffee
- 3 tbsps. lemon juice

 How does Fiat do it for the price?

AIN'T FOOLIN'

FIAT has brought out an advanced car that beats its competition (a common German make) feature by feature.

BRILLIANT ADVANCED 124
 CHECK THESE FEATURES:
 ✓ Disc brakes on all 4 wheels—no extra cost ✓ 4 doors—that's just the way it's made ✓ Seats 5 comfortably—a family car ✓ 13.6 cubic feet trunk room—not 7.5 ✓ Undercoating—no extra cost ✓ Safety padded sun visors—no extra cost ✓ Vinyl upholstery—no extra cost ✓ Plus 18 safety features—no extra cost.

FIAT'S 850 sedan

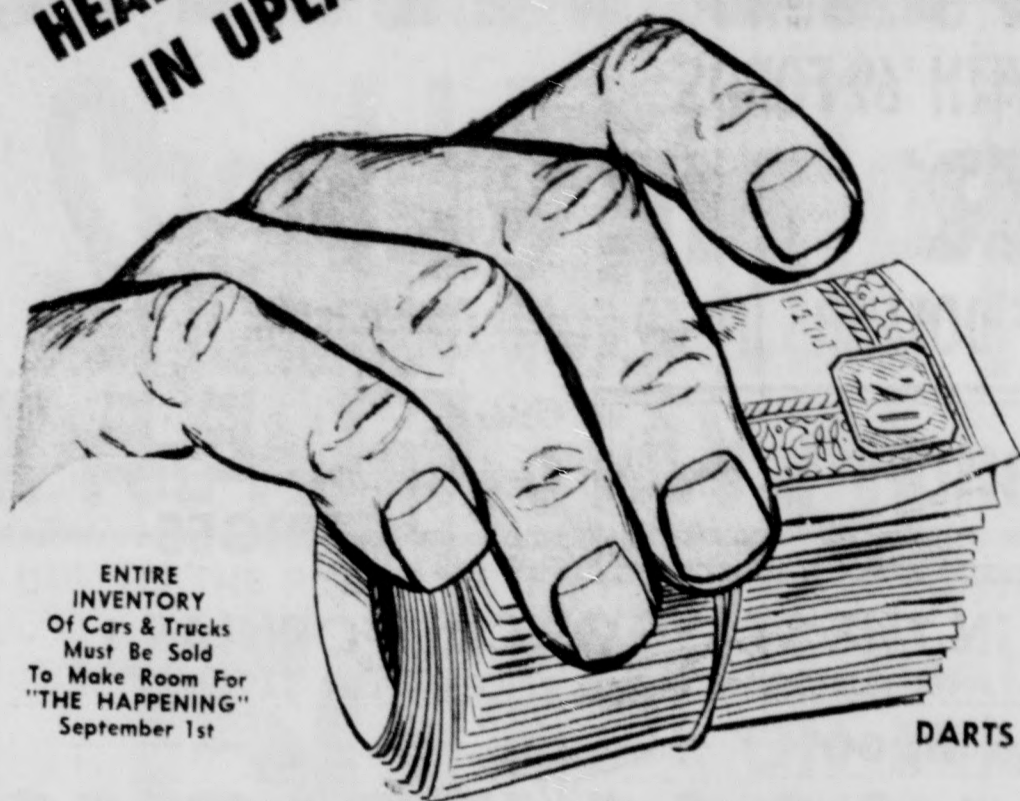

Meet the 850 Sedan — the sleek new sweetheart from Fiat.
 She's eager to swing... responsive to your lightest touch. Easy on your wallet, too — her lively engine is a gas miser. Take your choice of an automatic transmission or 4-speed, all-synchromesh transmission. Either makes driving a breeze. You'll take to the soft elegance of her interior... roomy enough for 4 to 5 people. Plus plenty of luggage space. And wonderfully efficient heating, ventilation and defrosting. All for a low... low... low price.

ON BRAND NEW 1969
CHRYSLERS AND PLYMOUTHS

Southern California residents are constantly bombarded with more "p h o n e y", misleading, "bait" "price war" and "come on" advertising in newspapers, and "pitch men" on T.V. and Radio, than the rest of the U.S. combined. We have never resorted to this type of advertising. We know that for comparable equipment and service to our customers—we are always competitive. Now, due to lack of storage space, we are running a sale. And when WE say sale, that's EXACTLY WHAT WE MEAN. We are offering all brand new 1969 Chryslers and Plymouths

You're 'Myth-taken'

Palm Springs Not Only Winterland

PALM SPRINGS - The biggest case of "myth-taken" identity is being revealed this summer in Palm Springs, the "World's Foremost Desert Resort."

While Neil Armstrong, Michael Collins, and Edwin Aldrin, Jr. were disproving the age-old myth that the moon was made of green cheese, thousands of summertime Palm Springs visitors were disproving the legendary tale that Palm Spring is only a winter wonderland.

Merchants, hoteliers, and restaurateurs are actively promoting the demise of the seasonal reputation of Palm Springs through a program called "Discover the In Summer Palm Springs."

The vacation - bound have a variety of activities available during this Palm Springs "in" summer. With numerous tennis courts, golf courses, and swimming pools, Palm Springs is a "can do" place in the daytime and an air - conditioned retreat in the evening.

Three special summer hotel packages bring budgetary bounce to the vacation - stretched dollar. The vacationing family can stay from Sunday through Thursday for the price of four nights on the "Rest of the Week" hotel package.

For as low as $24, vacationers can enjoy three days and two nights on the "Three Day Stretch." The "Monday Drive Home Bonus" provides a half-price Sunday night stay - over for the visitor who has stayed at the hotel on Friday and Saturday nights.

As the off - season becomes a myth of the past, summertime Palm Springs transforms into the "in" vacation resort of today.

CAREFUL to crush all smokes dead out.

Economy At New High

For the sixth time in seven months, the Southern California economy has reached another record high.

As estimated on the Security Pacific National Bank index (1957-59=100), July business activity registered at 202.3, up 0.6 percent from a previous high of 201.1 in June and up 12.7 percent from 179.5 a year ago.

Previous monthly index readings for this year are 200.1 for May, 193.2 for April, 189.6 for March, 191.7 for February and 190.0 for January.

Every month of 1969, except March, has brought a new record.

Among individual economic indicators, seasonally adjusted June-July improvements have been made in department store sales (3.6%), real estate sales (2.6%) and bank clearings (0.5%). Construction declined 1.8 percent during the month. Since July, 1968, the percentage gains have been 23.4% in clearings, 16.9% in construction, 16.0% in department store sales and 4.4% in real estate sales.

Employment declined on a seasonally adjusted basis during June, the latest month for which figures are available. Statistics for eight of the ten Southern California counties (Imperial, as well as the metropolitan counties of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, Santa Barbara and Ventura) show a loss of 6,600 in total civilian employment - from a record high of 4,617,100 in May to 4,610,500 in June.

Special Concert At SC Idyllwild

Three outstanding musical artists will present "Voices of Czechoslovakia" featuring compositions by Antonin Dvorak and Leos Janacek, Sunday, Aug. 24, at 8 p.m. in Rush Hall at the University of Southern California Idyllwild School of Music and the Arts.

The performers will be Howard Fried, nationally known tenor from San Diego; Beverly Green, mezzo-soprano; and Constance Virtue, pianist, both from La Mesa.

Fried has completed 12 seasons with the San Francisco Opera Company and five with the New York City Opera Company. He has appeared with the NBC Opera Company and notable orchestras, including the Boston Symphony, N. Y. Philharmonic, and National Symphony.

Mrs. Green, a leading soloist in the San Diego area where she and Mrs. Virtue have given many concerts, has performed on radio and television and appeared with the S.D. Symphony and with the Starlight Opera.

Open to the public, admission will be $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children.

James Ashcraft In Vietnam

ALTA LOMA - Army Specialist Four James M. Ashcraft, 21, son of Mrs. Annie R. Kern, 1445 Columbia ave., Ontario, was assigned to the 23rd Artillery Group in Vietnam, July 25 as a surveyor.

His father, Milton J. Ashcraft, lives at 6266 Revere st., Alta Loma.

Cordially Speaking

Cordials or liqueurs are very versatile palate pleasers. Flavored with fruits, flowers, seeds, herbs, juices or roots, these sweet, dessert-like drinks are served after dinner, plain or on the rocks (ice dilutes the sweetness). The Mr. Boston Party Kitchens advises that they are also delicious poured over ice cream, mixed with sliced fruits, or stirred into hot tea for a throat-soothing drink. Try creme de cacao over vanilla ice cream, sloe gin (which is a red liqueur) over sliced peaches, or wild cherry flavored brandy in tea with a little sugar.

An especially appealing after-dinner drink for a gala occasion is the King Alphonso, which is fresh sweet cream floated over dark creme de cacao in a small pony glass. To float ingredients in layers, pour each slowly over a teaspoon held bottom side up over the glass. The Old Mr. Boston Official Bartender's Guide also recommends inserting a glass stirring rod and pouring each ingredient down the rod. Pour in the order given in the recipe.

Cordials are used for fine cooking as well as dessert sipping. There is a wide variety of types, which can often be confusing to the novice, but according to Mr. Boston Distiller the most popular liqueurs to stock in the cupboard for use in cooking recipes are: fruit flavored brandies, creme de cacao, creme de menthe, sloe gin, anisette (licorice flavor), and triple sec, which is a generic name for a white liqueur made from oranges.

To enjoy the fullest flavor of a liqueur after dinner, sip some ice water first to clear the palate.

If creme de menthe is a little too sweet for your taste but you would still love a minty drink after a big meal, try peppermint schnapps or peppermint vodka. They are minty but light-bodied.

S.B. County Museum Grant $29,000 Under Request

The 1969-1970 San Bernardino County Budget, approved by the Board of Supervisors, authorizes expenditures of $75,424 for the San Bernardino County Museum, Bloomington.

This represents an increase of approximately $6,000 over the budget of last year, but it falls $29,000 short of the request made by the Museum Commission.

The principal requests rejected by the Supervisors included extra staff positions ($14,795) and improvements to buildings and grounds ($10,575).

The need for additional custodial-maintenance help at the Museum is considered to be critical, and the Museum Commission at its July 8 meeting, urgently requested the Board of Supervisors to approve at least one additional position at the earliest possible time.

Until recently some of this work was performed by welfare workers assigned to the Museum, but after this program was cut, no replacements were furnished by county government. At present, much of the custodial work is performed by volunteers and staff personnel who must do such work at the expense of their regular technical or clerical assignments.

The budget is supposed to cover the maintenance and operation of four facilities under the County Museum administration -- the county Museum at Bloomington, the Asistencia near Redlands, the Sepulveda Adobe in Yucaipa, and the Agua Mansa Cemetery near Colton.

The County's (i.e., taxpayers') share of Museum operation amounts to about 10 1/2¢ for each citizen of the county. This is supplemented by the budget of the San Bernardino County Museum Association, whose expenditures last year on behalf of the Museum totaled over $62,500.

Another even more significant supplement is provided by volunteer help. It is estimated that over three-fourths of the technical, clerical, maintenance, and custodial work at the Museum facilities is done by volunteers. This, by itself, represents value received of well over $100,000.

To this should be added the value of items and collections given to the Museum -- the accessions during the past year were appraised at $100,131.17.

These figures indicate that county government contributed approximately 20% of the total in developing and maintaining the San Bernardino County Museum during the past year.

ITEM: When working with any floor finish that contains solvents, use caution. Rags that have been soaked with solvents or varnish should be disposed of immediately after you have finished with them. Burn them or put them in a bucket of water. Always work in a well-ventilated area with windows and doors open. This will reduce the chance of solvent fumes accumulating and being ignited.

DISTINGUISHED ACHIEVEMENT AWARD — F.C. Abbott, right, owner of Skycrest Motors, Upland, recently received Ford Division's annual Distinguished Achievement Award. The dealership won the award for excellence in management, merchandising, and maintenance of modern, efficient service facilities. L.S. Grey, Ford Division's Los Angeles sales manager, presented the award.

FRUIT DREAM

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| 1 envelope (4-serving size) | 1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind |
| low calorie orange flavor gelatin | 1/4 cup drained low calorie fruit cocktail |
| Dash of salt | 1/4 cup diced orange sections |
| 1 1/2 cups boiling water | |
| 1/2 cup milk | |

Dissolve gelatin and salt in boiling water. Cool. Stir in milk and orange rind. Chill until thickened; fold in fruits. Pour into dessert dishes or individual molds. Chill until firm. Serve from glasses or unmold. Garnish, if desired. Makes 2 1/4 cups or 4 servings—about 40 calories each, served plain.

Saturday Rates As Bad Day To Travel On Our Highways

Saturday continues to be the most dangerous day of the week for driving. Thousands of Americans last year, 12,200 to be exact, died as the result of traffic accidents on Saturdays. And that's 610 more, reports the National Automobile Club, than the Saturday death total for 1967.

Alcohol continues to be one of the main causes.

Everybody knows that drinking increases on the weekend, what with all those goings-on. Worst of all, of course, is the guy who looks to be a buddy on the road.

It's best to "cool it" on such stuff. Don't drink before you drive, and especially not on Saturdays.

Nor does the guy who tailgates deserve a medal.

Far from being a minor cause of traffic accidents, tailgating maims or kills countless victims every year. So don't be too fond of the bumper on the car ahead. Do avoid it like the plague. Always leave yourself a wide enough margin of safety, but especially on Saturdays.

What he may have hanging over his head is a traffic accident, one that might put another person in a wheelchair for life. Be indecisive as to what lane you want, points out NAC, and you too might sideswipe someone. Stick to your chosen lane, especially on Saturdays.

But the guy who drives defensively as well as carefully wins the approval of experts.

For that kind of person realizes that it isn't enough just to avoid making one's own mistakes, that one also needs to watch out for the mistakes of other motorists. Miss a single such mistake and that's all it takes to get you killed.

Instead, advises NAC, be the defensive driver who constantly stays on his toes, and especially on Saturdays.

DEL MAR -- Two of the most important features of the summer season will be decided this weekend at Del Mar by-the-sea. Saturday's headliner is the $30,000 added Del Mar Derby, championship distance event for the 3-year-old division and Friday will see the fourth running of the $20,000 added Cabrillo Handicap, a test for the older stakes division pointing toward the $40,000 Del Mar Handicap on Labor Day.

As a special added attraction Saturday, Frank McMahon's famed 3-year-old star, Majestic Prince, winner of this year's Kentucky Derby and Preakness, will be paraded after the second race. Majestic Prince, recovering from an ankle treatment for osselets, is back in fine fettle again and enjoying the seaside breezes and the ocean waves on the nearby Del Mar beach. He will not return to racing action, however, until later this year.

Marco Polo noted that the ancient Chinese wove cloth with colored cotton.

Sr. Citizens To Recall

SACRAMENTO - Senior Citizens will be carried back to the era in which they merely read about Buck Rogers, instead of actually watching a man on the moon, when they are honored at this year's State Fair at the California Exposition on their "Day," Aug. 24.

The State Fair runs this year from Aug. 22 through Sept. 9.

In addition to all of the colorful exhibits and special activities on the California Exposition grounds, the senior citizens will be honored by the Mickie Finn Show, with its banjo music and songs from the "Roaring 20's," in the grandstand.

The voluptuous Mickie, husband Fred and their entourage, a tremendous success in Phoenix last month, will play two shows on Senior Citizens Day, at 5:30 p.m. and 9 p.m.

Pettis Convinced Tax Reform Is 'Just Around The Corner'

By Jerry L. Pettis

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Tax reform -- to paraphrase Mark Twain -- has been something everybody talks about but no one does anything about. However, it's beginning to look as if this may finally be the year when something is done.

The House of Representatives approved a massive tax reform bill the first week in August, with only a handful opposing it. It doesn't have everything that I would like to see in it, and for that reason I voted to send it back to the Ways and Means Committee for some revisions. For instance, I was disappointed that it did not raise the personal exemption from $600 to $1200, as I had asked in a bill I submitted early this year.

The vote to recommit failed, so I went along with the majority and voted to approve it. The bill's virtues far outweigh its disadvantages, and it could go a long way toward correcting many of the injustices in our tax system, as well as providing a measure of relief for the low and middle income wage earners.

As one Congressman

supporting tax reform, I was heartened when, earlier in the session, it seemed from my mail that everyone was for a strong tax reform measure -- and that most of the letter writers were middle-income wage earners sick and tired of constantly getting stuck with the bulk of the tax burden, that now in reading the mail it appears most everyone has an oil well tucked away, is personally supporting a foundation or a charity, and keeps a substantial portfolio of tax-exempt bonds. If they don't have these, they at least have an apartment house benefiting from accelerated depreciation or are reveling in stock market profits which receive capital gains deductions.

And further, from my letters, it appears that these individuals are just barely making it financially. The shaving of just a scintilla of that loophole would not only put them out of business and throw their family on relief, but the whole competitive free enterprise system might fall and, in the case of oil depletion, our foreign enemies would probably invade us.

On a tax bill, a Congressman has three choices -- he can vote for or against the entire bill, or plan a speaking engagement in his district on the date of the vote. There were no opportunities to judge and vote on the many separate provisions of the tax package. There was the other choice, to send it back for revisions, but as I mentioned, that failed.

This state of affairs is due to the rules of the House, which sometimes are used to thwart the will of the majority. After bills are approved by the appropriate House committee having jurisdiction over the subject matter, they are referred to the House Rules Committee. If the committee doesn't like the bill, it doesn't give it a "rule," and the bill is never heard of again. As it refers to a bill, a rule is what might best be described as the ticket of admission a bill needs to reach the floor for consideration. The rule determines the bill's status, the length of the floor debate allowed on it, and whether amendments may be offered on the floor. The Rules Committee always gives tax bills a "closed rule" which means that the bill cannot be amended under any circumstances.

If the bill is approved by the House, it moves to the Senate and over there they don't have many rules, so just about anything goes, especially on tax bills. Admission should be charged to those Senate meetings -- with a major tax reform bill of this size, the sessions are going to be wild. The U.S. had better not try any moon shots during that time -- those old men would crowd the astronauts off the front page. When the Senate finally comes up with something -- anything -- the resulting bill will go to a conference of senior members of the respective tax committees of the two Houses whose job is to hammer out a compromise bill. And there, my friends, is where the tax reform bill is going to be written.

ITEM: If you keep pesticides or chemicals around the house for any reason, store them carefully, out of the reach of children. Whenever you use them, read the directions carefully, follow them exactly.

Reynolds Assistant Chief

Upon recommendation of the County Museum Commission, in June, the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors named Robert Reynolds as Curator and Assistant Director of the San Bernardino County Museum at Bloomington.

The action came following a request of Dr. Gerald Smith, Museum Director, that he be relieved of some of his day-to-day responsibilities because of the demands of his new position as Superintendent of the Colton Unified School District.

Dr. Smith will continue to serve in a volunteer capacity. His position as Executive Director of the Museum Association remains unchanged.

Reynolds, trained as a geologist and paleontologist, came to the Museum two years ago as a technician, and has acted as the curator of Earth Sciences.

At the Museum, he and his volunteer secretary, Jennifer Flesher, have been responsible for cataloging and accessioning the Museum collections. Also, during the past year, Reynolds directed two Museum field projects in the county -- one at Valley Wells, and one in the Barstow Fossil Beds.

FISHING IS FOR THE BIRDS

Some of the best fishermen in the world wear wings. They are large, tethered birds whose angling ancestry dates back 1300 years. Cormorants, tied to a long cord, are still used to fish rivers and lakes in some parts of the Orient. A metal ring fastened around the bird's neck keeps it from swallowing the catch. A cormorant may fetch its owner 100 to 150 fish per hour, a good catch ratio, anywhere.

Actually, birds of all kinds are important to fishermen, say the angling authorities at Mercury Outdoors. For birds are helpful in finding fish, and in some instances are beneficial in reducing undesirable species of fish.

Not everyone can have a trained cormorant to do his fishing, but the role birds play in aiding salt-water anglers is well known. A flock of diving, wheeling gulls is often better than some of the new electronic equipment when it comes to locating schools of fish offshore and inshore.

Studies have shown that few warm-water game fish are taken by birds. Herons and other wading birds do their fishing along the edges of lakes and streams. Here they catch sluggish, shallow-water fish such as carp and gar, missing the more alert game fish.

Not all bird-fish relationships are beneficial to man. In some coastal areas, merganser ducks are a menace to salmon populations and in some cases have needed control to halt their excessive predations.

Another place man and birds tangle over fish is around fish hatcheries. Hatchery holding tanks are favorite feeding grounds for birds such as the kingfisher and great blue heron.

Now that the Mercury lads have informed you about the birds and the fish, the next time someone says fishing is for the birds -- smile and agree. After all, aren't there times when a cormorant would come in handy?

When You Turn On Your Lights....Think Of Big Creek

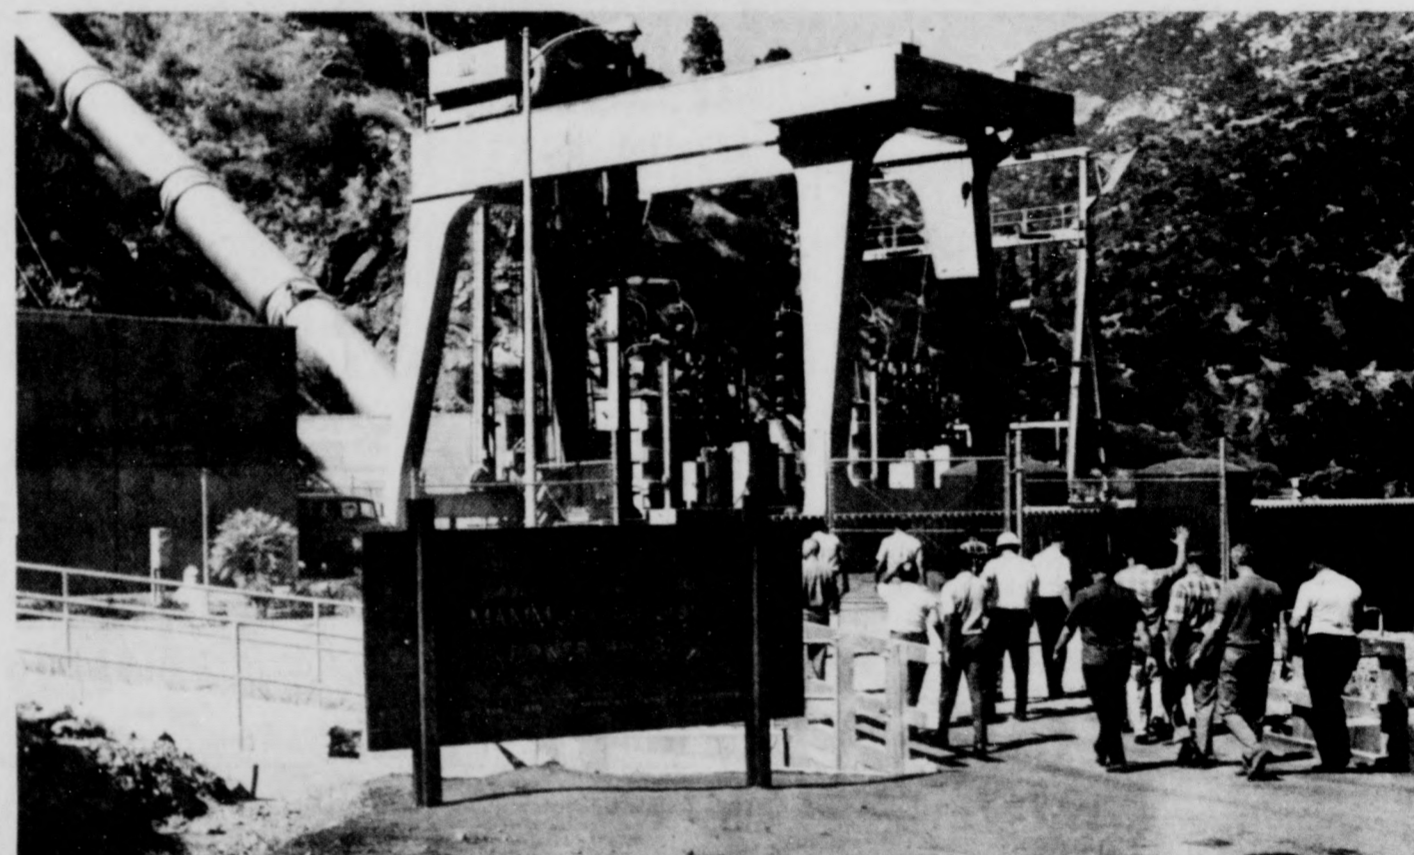

SPECTACULAR SIERRA SCENERY - A good part of the highway system along the Big Creek project is maintained by SCE and the scenery is spectacular.

PLENTY OF WATER AT POWERHOUSE 8 - Water is no problem this year with the Big Creek Hydro-Electric system with a heavy snowfall and rain providing all that is needed for power as well as San Joaquin irrigation needs.

THE MAMMOTH POOL - Computers and monitored television has found its way into the electric business. Two plants can be operated by one man through auto-

EDISON LAKE IN THE SIERRAS - Southern California Edison provides and maintains a camp grounds around Edison Lake with all the comforts of home.

Plug in your coffee or electric blanket. But we warn you there's a waiting line to get in.

A BREATHER BEFORE DEPARTURE - Host Morris Horsley, left, Principal Thos. Glasheen of Upland High, center, and Orville Garrison of the Pomona First Federal and Savings branch in Upland, basks in the sun before starting another day of touring Big Creek country. Garrison is holding a bag of grapes purchased in the Big Creek village.

Calif.'s Fabulous Engineering Project

By Bill Mason

When you turn on your lights in the evening or plug in the percolator in the morning, you are pretty far removed from the Big Creek Country of the Southern Sierras—but it is likely that this gigantic hydro-electric operation contributes a great deal to your daily comforts.

Recently 15 Ontario and Upland residents were invited on a three day tour of the spectacular project by Southern California Edison—and it's a trip that is never forgotten, both from the standpoint of hospitality and information gleaned.

Big Creek is one of the major sources of electricity in this area along with the substations at Etiwanda and Los Alamitos—but the hydro-electric project is the spectacular one.

In scope it compares with the construction of the Panama Canal.

The hydro-electric system involves a series of dams and plants dependent upon the run-off from the Sierras. Included in the dam and lake system are Redinger Lake, Mammoth Pool Reservoir, the San Joaquin River, Lake Thomas A. Edison, Huntington Lake and Shaver Lake, all within a radius of about 75 miles from Fresno. And all at altitudes ranging from 1,403 feet to 6,950 feet above sea level amidst glorious mountain scenery.

FIVE RECORDS

The mammoth project established five milestones in the history of electricity:

(1) The Big Creek-San Joaquin River Hydro-electric project in the High Sierra is one of the world's boldest engineering schemes for developing hydroelectric power at the time of its construction considered larger in scope than the Panama Canal. Construction was begun in 1911 and is continuing even today. Descending Sierra slopes, melted snow and rain turn the generators of eight giant hydro plants. The water of Big Creek is called "The Hardest Working Water In The World."

(2) During the initial development of Big Creek, engineers built the San Joaquin and Eastern Railroad. Fifty-six miles long and containing 1,100 curves, it was built in a record-breaking 157 days to open up the wilderness for the use and betterment of man.

(3) By 1913, a 150,000-volt transmission line was sending power from Big Creek to Los Angeles, a record of the day.

(4) When Big Creek's 13 1/2 mile Ward Tunnel was carved through the granite heart of Kaiser Ridge in 1925, it was the longest water tunnel in the world.

(5) The coveted Charles A. Coffin Medal, awarded by General Electric, was won in 1922 (the first year it was given) by the Southern California Edison Company. Edison was honored for building its 220,000-volt transmission line between Big Creek and Los Angeles—a record distance for this voltage.

Big Creek's initial development took place during the year 1911 through 1913. But the greatest expansion occurred during the 1920's.

A permanent Edison Staff of 5,000 engineers, foremen and workmen built power houses, laid out roads, constructed dams, created artificial lakes, blasted tunnels, ran a lumber mill, operated a railroad, set up a weather and communications system, maintained a mountain resort and managed a score of construction camps.

Big Creek was America's first large scale multi-purpose hydroelectric development. This project provided power generation, water conservation, fire prevention, flood control, irrigation, and recreation areas.

In 1911, the "initial" development of the Big Creek-San Joaquin Hydroelectric Project began. The first problem was how to get men and materials into the heart of the High Sierra. So, a railroad was built to Big Creek--The San Joaquin and Eastern, SJ&E. With 1,100 curves, it was often referred to as the "Slow, Jerky and Expensive." It was a 56-mile standard gauge line from a point 18 miles north of Fresno to the site of Big Creek Powerhouse No. 1. It was built in an unbelievably short 157 days, an outstanding record.

The SJ&E hauled 60,-

000 tons of supplies, food and equipment to get the job done at Big Creek and open up the wilderness for man's use and recreation. By 1913 three dams, two power houses and a 240-mile transmission line to Los Angeles had been completed. Big Creek was "on the line!" Those who made the trip as guests of Morris Horsley, area SCL manager are:

Tom Glasheen, Principal, Upland high school, Upland; Ken Keenly, Manager, Automobile Club of Southern California, Ontario; Roger Hughbanks, Assistant City Manager, City of Ontario, Ontario; Bill Stern, Retired, Shower Door Manufacturing, Ontario; Ivan Tennant,

City Engineer, City of Ontario, Ontario; George Gibson, Mayor, City of Upland, Upland; Bill Mason, Editor, The Upland News, Upland; Alex Tobin, Director, Chino Basin Municipal Water District, Upland; Lee Travers, Administrative Assistant, City of Upland, Upland; Herb Leffler, Resort Owner, Mt. Baldy Ski Lift, Mt. Baldy; Orville Garrison, Manager, Upland Branch, Pomona First Federal Savings & Loan, Upland; Phil Born, Member, Upland Planning Commission, Upland; Ray Anderson, Member, Upland Planning Commission, Upland; Wallace D.
